2. The Tourist Board in your area has decided to produce a publication called Travelling on a Small Budget. You work for the Tourist Board and have been asked to write a report for the brochure explaining the advantages of your region in terms of cheap ways to travel around, places to stay and activities for visitors.
Write your report.
3. A magazine has invited readers to send in articles with the title My Ideal Home. You decide to write an article in which you describe the structure and furnishings of your ideal home. You should discuss how this choice reflects your personality and consider what we can learn about people from the type of home they live in and the way they furnish it.
Write your article.
4. An international magazine has been running a series of articles on fame and the fascination that there is with famous people and their celebrity status. Write a letter to the magazine describing your country's media coverage of famous people and how you think that coverage affects their lives.
Write your letter.
5. Based on your reading of one of these books, write on one of the following:
 - (a) Brian Moore: *The Colour of Blood
You have recommended that The Colour of Blood is chosen as a suitable book for discussion by your reading group. However, the secretary of the group is concerned that the title of the book may give some readers a misleading impression of what it is about. You have been asked to write a report recommending the book and explaining the significance of the title.
Write your report.
 - (b) L.R. Hartley: *The Go-Between
You have had a class discussion on the importance of the opening lines in novels. Your tutor has asked you to write an essay on how effectively the first line of The Go-Between "The past is a foreign country: they do things differently there" establishes the theme of the novel.
Write your essay.
 - (c) Chinua Achebe: *Things Fall Apart
Your reading group has asked members to write reviews of books which feature significant relationships between parents and children. You decide to write a review of Things Fall Apart, referring in particular to the relationship between Okonkwo and the children in his household, and focusing on what these relationships reveal about Okonkwo's character. You should include at least two of the following people: Nwoye, Obiageli, Ezinma, or Ikemefuna.
