The Economics of Sports Michael A. Leeds, Peter von Allmen, Victor A. Matheson, 2018-04-27 The sports industry provides a seemingly endless set of examples from every area of microeconomics giving students the opportunity to study economics in a context that holds their interest Thoroughly updated to reflect the current sports landscape The Economics of Sports introduces core economic concepts and theories and applies them to American and international sports Updates for this sixth edition include More coverage of international sports including European football A revised chapter on competitive balance reflecting new techniques A brand new chapter on mega events such as the Olympics and World Cup New material on umpire bias A completely redesigned chapter on amateur competition that focuses exclusively on intercollegiate sports This chapter is also now modular enabling instructors who wish to intersperse it with the other chapters to do so with greater ease This accessible text is supported by a companion website which includes resources for students and instructors It is the perfect text for advanced undergraduate and graduate courses on sports economics Stone Canvas Pawel Lech Polkowski, 2023-03-27 This book presents proceedings of the conference devoted to rock art and graffiti studies in Egypt and Sudan that took place in Cairo from 10th to 12th November 2019 The thematic spectrum of the contributions is very wide in terms of both their geographical and their chronological range encompassing figural and textual sources dating from the Late Palaeolithic through the Predynastic Dynastic and Graeco Roman periods up to Christian and Islamic times Many of the papers combine evidence from various archaeological domains and also attempt to better integrate graffiti and rock art materials in search of a common ground for research Thus the volume provides a good overview of the current state of investigations in these two fields of study in Egypt and Nubia Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015 \(Volume 4\) Union Of International Associations, Union of International Associations, 2014-09-17 The Yearbook of International Organizations provides the most extensive coverage of non profit international organizations currently available Detailed profiles of international non governmental and intergovernmental organizations IGO collected and documented by the Union of International Associations can be found here In addition to the history aims and activities of international organizations with their events publications and contact details the volumes of the Yearbook include networks between associations biographies of key people involved and extensive statistical data Providing both an international organizations and research bibliography Volume 4 cites over 46 000 publications and information resources supplied by international organizations and provides nearly 18 000 research citations under 40 subject headings This volume also includes a research bibliography on international organizations and transnational associations Religious Tourism Tzung-Cheng (TC) Huan, Anestis K. Fotiadis, Nikolaos (Niko) Stylos, 2024-12-16 This book traces the evolving landscape of religious travel ranging from the responses of the tourism industry to Muslim travellers to the emergence of halal tourism trends Part I of the book examines the dynamics between religion and tourism including the commodification of heritage and the symbiotic relationship between religion and economics Part II delves into emerging trends and contemporary challenges such as the impact of COVID 19 on sacred journeys and the integration of virtual reality into religious tourism experiences The final part of the book explores diverse religious tourism experiences from Islamic tourism to Jewish pilgrimages providing a rich tapestry of insights into this fascinating aspect of travel Whether examining the commodification of religious heritage or delving into the motivations behind Sikh pilgrimage this volume provides a comprehensive overview of the industry dynamics emerging trends and contemporary issues shaping religious tourism today Engaging and enlightening Religious Tourism Industry Dynamics Emerging Trends and Contemporary Issues is essential reading for scholars practitioners and enthusiasts seeking a deeper understanding of this fascinating intersection of faith and travel The chapters in this book were originally published in Tourism Recreation Research Handbook of Policy Formulation Michael Howlett, Ishani Mukherjee, 2017-04-28 Policy formulation relies upon the interplay of knowledge based analysis of issues with power based considerations such as the political assessment of the costs and benefits of proposed actions and its effects on the partisan and electoral concerns of governments Policy scholars have long been interested in how governments successfully create deploy and utilise policy instruments but the literature on policy formulation has until now remained fragmented This comprehensive Handbook unites original scholarship on policy tools and design with contributions examining policy actors and the roles they play in the formulation process The Socialist Ideas of the British Left's Alternative Economic Strategy Baris Tufekci, 2019-11-30 This book provides the first book length study of the political and economic ideas of the British left's Alternative Economic Strategy in the 1970s and early 1980s Discussing the AES's approaches to capitalism the nation state and the working class it argues that existing academic accounts have significantly overstated the radicalism of the strategy Perhaps more notable especially in the light of its stated revolutionary aims was the extent of its moderation its continuities with post war Labour revisionism its marked reluctance to look beyond the market economy the degree of its preoccupation with Britain's global economic status and its inability to break with Labourist politics of class co operation in the national interest While the book argues that the AES was the last class politics socialist initiative in mainstream British politics it also explores the ways in which its ideas perhaps prepared the way for New Labour in the 1990s and its relationship with Corbynism since 2015

The Second World War and the 'Other British Isles' Daniel Travers, 2018-06-28 What is often held to be Britain's finest hour the Second World War was not experienced so uniformly across the British Isles On the margins the war was endured in profoundly different ways While D Day or Dunkirk is embedded in British collective memory how many Britons can recall that Finns were interned on the Isle of Man that enemy soldiers developed British infrastructure in Orkney or that British subjects were sent to concentration camps from Guernsey Such experiences tangential to the dominant British war narrative are commemorated elsewhere in the other British Isles In this remarkable contribution to British Island Studies Daniel Travers pursues these histories and their commemoration across numerous local sites of memory museums heritage sites and public spaces He examines the way these island identities assert their own distinctiveness over the British wartime story and ultimately the way they fit into the ongoing discourse about how the memory of the Second World War has been constructed since 1945     Revista Del Rio de La Plata ,1991     New Zealand International Review ,2002     Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print ,1984     Board of Trade Journal ,1965     The Times Index ,2013-05 Indexes the Times Sunday times and magazine Times literary supplement Times educational supplement Time educational supplement Scotland and the Times higher education supplement     Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1980 A multidisciplinary index covering the journal literature of the arts and humanities It fully covers 1 144 of the world s leading arts and humanities journals and it indexes individually selected relevant items from over 6 800 major science and social science journals     New Statesman ,1963     Emblems of Exploration Joseph R. Chambers,Mark A. Chambers,2015 This publication s first objective is to convey detailed information regarding the designers and design process for the emblems of NASA and its predecessor the National Advisory Committee for Aeronautics NACA The second objective is to briefly illustrate the applications of these respected and admired insignias and seals within the cultures of each agency For this task photographs and descriptions are used to exemplify applications to buildings equipment aircraft and spacecraft correspondence and documents and personal memorabilia such as pins awards and retirement plaques The material presented herein is organized chronologically and covers the subject from the first days of the NACA in 1915 to the current day situation in NASA
