

WISCONSIN MOTOR VEHICLE ACCIDENT REPORT

The top of page one contains information about the exact location, time and date of the motor vehicle accident. The investigating police officer will also make a note here if the accident was a hit and run, occurred on a highway or at an intersection.

The middle of page one contains information about the two drivers involved in the collision. Here, you will find the name, address, driver's license number and other personal information about both drivers. Verify that such information is accurate. If not, notify the investigating police officer and tell them what information needs to be corrected.

The bottom of page one contains information about additional drivers involved in the accident, if applicable, and the personal information about any passengers who were in the vehicles at the time of the crash. The investigating police officer will also make a note here if anyone was ejected from the vehicle, if an airbag deployed and if emergency responders had to extricate anyone from the vehicles.
