

Prospect

This person hasn't purchased, but may be in your ecosystem by following you on social media, reading blog posts, or attending webinars.

Subscriber

Once the prospect gives you their email address, you can start to target them based on where they've been on your site or other behavior, and begin to nurture them to purchase.

Customer

They now pay you for a product or service. From there, they have two paths:

Inactive/Cancelled Customer

While they may use your product or service, they may use it episodically or only shop during specific sale periods. Though they generate revenue, they're not at full potential.

Loyal Customer/ Advocate

They continue to renew your service or buy your products, and may begin to tell the world about it, or refer their friends and colleagues.
