Phonological Structure and Language Processing

Takashi Otake, Anne Cutler, 1996 No detailed description available for Phonological Structure and Language Processing

The Phonology of Norwegian Gjert Kristoffersen, 2000-06-29 At the end of the fourteenth century Norway having previously been an independent kingdom became by conquest a province of Denmark and remained so for three centuries. In 1814 as part of the fall out from the Napoleonic wars the country became a largely independent nation within the monarchy of Sweden. By this time however Danish had become the language of government commerce and education as well as of the middle and upper classes. Nationalistic Norwegians sought to reestablish native identity by creating and promulgating a new language based partly on rural dialects and partly on Old Norse. The upper and middle classes sought to retain a form of Norwegian close to Danish that would be intelligible to themselves and to their neighbours in Sweden and Denmark. The controversy has gone on ever since. One result is that the standard dictionaries of Norwegian ignore pronunciation for no version can be counted as received. Another is that there has been considerable variety and change in Norwe

Direct Instruction Reading Douglas Carnine, 2010 For courses in Direct Reading Instruction Remedial Reading and Reading for Special Education Students Thoroughly integrating the latest guidelines from the National Reading Panel this is a practical guide to teaching reading via the direct instruction reading approach a proven program that is especially powerful with the most vulnerable learners those at risk because of poverty disability limited English. Rather than simply list method after method these nationally known and respected authors provide a specific repertoire of carefully sequenced highly prescriptive procedures for teaching decoding comprehension content reading and study skills. For each skill to be taught they recommend strategies discuss optimal timing offer examples and explain how to correct errors. In addition they thoughtfully examine the relationships among different reading skills.

Phonology of English Copied-words in Punjabi Balvinder Ghotra, 2006 The present study attempts to gauge the extent of lexical copyings from English into Punjabi and the degree of phonetic and phonological assimilation of the copied items. It clarifies a number of terminological issues including highlighting the fact that the traditional terms like loan word loan translation loan blend and lexical borrowing are out and out misnomers and as the metaphor of copying is more appropriate than that of borrowing for representing these linguistic phenomena they must be replaced with the terms copied word copied translation copied blend and lexical copying respectively.
