Smith,Dirk Syndram,2019-11-25 Featuring more than 150 treasures from several of the world s most prestigious collections Making Marvels explores the vital intersection of art technology and political power at the courts of early modern Europe It was there from the sixteenth through eighteenth centuries that a remarkable outpouring of creativity and learning gave rise to exquisite objects that were at once beautiful works of art and technological wonders By amassing vast glittering collections of these ingeniously crafted objects princes flaunted their wealth and competed for mastery over the known world More than mere status symbols however many of these marvels ushered in significant advancements that have had a lasting influence on astronomy engineering and even international politics Incisive texts by leading scholars situate these works within the rich complex symbolism of life at court where science and splendor were pursued with equal vigor and together contributed to a culture of magnificence ELT in Asia in the Digital Era: Global Citizenship and Identity

Suwarsih Madya,Fuad Abdul Hamied,Willy A. Renandya,Christine Coombe,Yazid Basthomi,2018-06-22 This proceedings book captures a wide range of timely themes for readers to be able to foresee the digital era s impact on English teaching in non English speaking countries English used in the global environment the frequent mobile communication and the use of AI based translators are bringing about dramatic changes in our English language learning and teaching Who can provide us the wisdom to know what to do Those scholars going through these complex environmental changes A collection of puzzle pieces may bring us a better contour for the future than a perfectly edited book It s indeed a pleasure reading these insightful pieces to gain wisdom for the future of ELT practices in global contexts Learning foreign languages:

experiences of persons with disabilities and special educational needs and their teachers Ewa Domagala-Zysk,Jitka Sedláčková,Katarzyna Karpińska-Szaj,2025-09-22 In many parts of the world it is not a person s native language but a foreign one which is used for education work or entertainment This is true for many European countries whose inhabitants need to learn English as a foreign language if they want to participate in education or among diverse fields in the workforce In other parts of the world it might be Spanish Hindi Mandarin Chinese Arabic or other languages which will be serving a similar role This need for learning a second language is understood well in many educational programs including those for students with special educational needs However to date there is not much research of the experiences of persons with diverse additional needs as learners of foreign languages The most robust literature covers the field of additional language acquisition among Deaf and Hard of Hearing DHH people cf Domaga a Zy k Podlowska Moritz 2021 and others Goals methods and forms of teaching are fairly well described and DHH students needs have been documented extensively The Bloomsbury
