Botswana Bgcse Past Exam Papers:

Vocationalisation of Secondary Education Revisited Jon Lauglo, R. Maclean, 2006-03-30 The book is a cutting edge contribution to the debate which has occurred for some time on the pros and cons of secondary education becoming more closely and explicitly related to preparing young people for the world of work The book provides concrete examples of the vocationalisation of secondary education with particular reference to the situation in Africa The target audience for the book includes policy makers practitioners administrators education planners researchers teachers and teacher educators with a concern about the relationship between secondary education and education for the world of work with particular reference to technical and vocational education and training TVET The book appears in the Springer book series on Technical and Vocational Education and Training Issues Concerns and Prospects and compliments the International Handbook of Technical and Vocational Education and Training and other publications in the International Library of TVET all of which are publications of the UNESCO UNEVOC International Centre for TVET in Bonn Germany

English Language and Literature Modupe Moyosore Alimi, Mompoloki Mmangaka Bagwasi, Patrick James Ebewo, 2020-11-09 English Language and Literature Cross Cultural Currents is a collection of essays that interrogate the precarious positions of English and African languages in an era in which English is increasingly becoming the dominant language in Africa while at the same time there is a growing resistance against it Though many Africans take pride in their own cultural heritage that is expressed by their African languages they require the economic and social benefits of English The book presents a language dilemma in which both African languages and English enhance inhibit and influence each other The data used by the authors spans a broad spectrum of sources including fiction courts parliamentary Hansards House of Chiefs classrooms internet roads and bus ranks Thus it is reflective of the most and least educated the most and least influential Africans The presentations provide broad insights about African symbols metaphors imagery and folklores representing undocumented literature that challenge scientific imperialism and deficit theories The diversity and freshness of the ideas in the book stem from the unique blend of the background of the contributors English language and literature teachers teachers of African languages educationalists sociologists historians and politicians Thus the book is a valuable asset to scholars in linguistics anthropology and language policy makers

Curricula, Examinations, and Assessment in Secondary Education in Sub-Saharan Africa Ramon Leyendecker, Wout Ottevanger, J. J. H. van den Akker, 2008 Curriculum reforms first and foremost should focus on improving the current teaching and learning processes As a systemic challenge these changes need to include re orientation from secondary education as pre academic tertiary education to a wider range of options including vocational education and the world of work Curriculum reforms in Sub Saharan Africa SSA require comprehensive approaches directed at the complexity of the educational system at large It requires the acknowledgement of past obstacles and current challenges to reform as well as the challenges additionally created by the reforms Human and physical resources perceptions experiences with past reforms and current school and classroom practices determine the limits of what educational systems can absorb in terms of development Many high political ambitions have implications that are beyond current context and conditions It therefore makes sense to have realistic ambitions and scope of curriculum reform because these may increase the potential for successful implementation Sometimes less could actually be more It is recommended that curriculum reform and strategies be based on the realities on the ground and much less on political ambitions Implementation of curricula depends on improved coordination of development efforts with a focus on curriculum It is recommended to increase the efficiency clearly define institutional responsibilities and provide for better cooperation and communication with across existing institutions and departments
