Bourdieu For Educators Policy And Practice:

Bourdieu for Educators Fenwick W. English, Cheryl L. Bolton, 2015-01-06 Educational change and reform on a larger scale Bourdieu for Educators Policy and Practice brings the revolutionary research and thinking of Pierre Bourdieu 1930 2002 of France to public educational leaders in North America Canada Australia and the U K This text brings Bourdieu s work into the arena of elementary and secondary educational reform and change and offers policy research and practice discussions Authors Fenwick W English and Cheryl L Bolton use Bourdieu to challenge the standards movement in different countries the current vision of effective management and the open market notion connecting pay to performance The text shows that connecting pay to performance won t improve education for the poorest group of school students in the U S Canada or the U K regardless of how much money is spent trying to erase the achievement gap The authors lay out the bold educational agenda of Pierre Bourdieu by demonstrating that educational preparation must take into account larger socioeconomic political realities in order for educational change and reform to make an impact The Bloomsbury Handbook of Bourdieu and Educational Research Garth Stahl, Guanglun Michael Mu, Pere Ayling, Elliot B. Weininger, 2024-02-08 This book is the first international reference work to showcase the diversity of ways of using Bourdieu s sociological toolkit in educational research Written by scholars based in Australia Brazil Canada China Indonesia Hong Kong the UK and the USA the handbook provides a unique and cutting edge picture of how Bourdieu has been both used and adapted in educational research globally The book will be useful for those who may only have a cursory knowledge of Bourdieu s tools as well as those who are already familiar with Bourdieu s work The chapters cover a wide range of topics including educational leadership teacher preparation space place educational policy literacy education marginalised students and student mobility

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee, Phillip Brown, A. Lin Goodwin, Andy Green, 2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world The SAGE Handbook of Educational Leadership Fenwick W. English, 2011-01-11 This fully updated Second Edition offers an unflinching and comprehensive overview of the full range of both practical and theoretical issues facing educational leadership today Editor Fenwick W English and 30 renowned authors boldly address the most fundamental and contested issues in the field including culturally relevant and distributed leadership critical policy and practice issues predicting the new century's conflict the paradox of changes and the promises paradoxes and pitfalls of standards for educational leaders Politics, Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard, 2013-07-24 In the World Library of Educationalists international experts compile career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces of work extracts from books key articles salient research findings major theoretical and practical contributions so the world can read them in a single manageable volume Readers will be able to follow the themes and strands and see how their work contributes to the development of the field Bob Lingard has spent the last 30 years researching and writing in universities in Australia England and Scotland about changing education policy issues His work is written from a sociological perspective and with a commitment to social justice He is the co editor and co author of 17 books and more than 100 journal articles and book chapters In Politics Policies and Pedagogies in Education Bob Lingard provides critical sociological engagement with the politics of education The focus is education policy and the impact of globalization including epistemological and methodological issues necessary for researching education policy today Topics analyzed include educational restructuring new accountabilities and testing mediatization of education policy policy as numbers the global policy field and policy borrowing pedagogies Lingard also considers the nature of educational research today He has selected 12 of his key writings and in a critical introduction situates and contextualizes the work against key developments in the field and in the changing world Bridging Educational Leadership, Curriculum Theory and Didaktik Michael Uljens, Rose M.

Ylimaki, 2017-10-04 This book is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license This volume argues for the need of a common ground that bridges leadership studies curriculum theory and Didaktik It proposes a non affirmative education theory and its core concepts along with discursive institutionalism as an analytical tool to bridge these fields It concludes with implications of its coherent theoretical framing for future empirical research Recent neoliberal policies and transnational governance practices point toward new tensions in nation state education These challenges affect governance leadership and curriculum involving changes in aims and values that demand coherence Yet the traditionally disparate fields of educational leadership curriculum theory and Didaktik have developed separately both in terms of approaches to theory and theorizing in USA Europe and Asia and in the ways in which these theoretical traditions have informed empirical studies over time An additional aspect is that modern education theory was developed in relation to nation state education which in the meantime has become more complicated due to issues of globalopolitanism This volume examines the current state of affairs and addresses the issues involved In doing so it opens up a space for a renewed and thoughtful dialogue to rethink and re theorize these traditions with non affirmative education theory moving beyond social reproduction and social transformation perspectives
