Office of the Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction,2009 Product Description The billions of dollars expended in Iraq constitute the largest relief and reconstruction exercise in American history SIGIR s lessons learned capping report characterizes this effort in four phases pre war to ORHA CPA post CPA Negroponte era and Khalilzad Crocker and the Surge From this history SIGIR forwards a series of conclusions and recommendations for Congress to consider when organizing for the next post conflict reconstruction situation Over the past five years the United States has provided nearly fifty billion dollars for the relief and reconstruction of Iraq This unprecedented rebuilding program implemented after the March 2003 invasion was developed to restore Iraq s essential services build Iraq s security forces create a market based economy and establish a democratic government all in pursuit of U S interests in a stable and free Iraq Did the U S rebuilding program achieve its objectives Was the money provided well spent or wasted What lessons have we learned from the experience Hard Lessons The Iraq Reconstruction Experience a report from the Special Inspector General for Iraq Reconstruction SIGIR answers these and other important questions by presenting a comprehensive history of the U S program chiefly derived from SIGIR s body of extensive oversight work in Iraq hundreds of interviews with key figures involved with the reconstruction program and thousands of documents evidencing the reconstruction work that was or was not done The report examines the limited pre war planning for reconstruction the shift from a large infrastructure program to a more community based one and the success of the Surge in 2007 and beyond Hard Lessons concludes that the U S government did not have the structure or resources in place to execute the mammoth relief and reconstruction plan it took on in 2003 The lessons learned from this experience create a basis for reviewing and reforming the U S approach to contingency relief and reconstruction operations

The CPA Journal ,2008      Responsible Lobbying Theresa Bauer,2016-09-06 This study investigates the awareness and practice of responsible lobbying in the EU and analyzes benefits and antecedents A multidimensional model of responsible lobbying is developed which provides normative guidelines and allows for determining the degree of responsible lobbying in practice The empirical part analyzes responsible lobbying in the EU by combining a quantitative analysis based on a survey among 142 lobbyists with a qualitative examination based on interviews The analysis reveals that criteria of responsible lobbying are fulfilled to a large extent according to the lobbyists This study comes at a time when researchers and practitioners increasingly recognize the need to establish responsible lobbying by aligning Corporate Social Responsibility CSR and lobbying

China's Diplomacy in Eastern and Southern Africa Seifudein Adem,2016-05-23 In contemporary discourse on China Africa relations there are on the one hand the Sino pessimists who see China as a giant vacuum cleaner sucking up Africa s resources in order to fuel its own rapid industrialization and destroying Africa s development potential in the process On the other hand the Sino optimists see China as the ultimate savior of Africa capable of or willing to develop the continent Between the two divergent schools of thought are those sitting on the fence for the time being the Sino pragmatists who are less sanguine for sure about what Africa would gain from China Africa relations but are nevertheless willing to reserve judgment until the dust settles This book is innovative in two ways it introduces a regional approach to the study of China Africa relations by focusing on Eastern and Southern Africa and it puts forward a disciplinary framework disciplinary in both senses of that term for interrogating the burgeoning literature about China Africa relations by conceptualizing the three schools of thought mentioned above

Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford,Rose Capdevila,Vindhya Undurti,Ingrid Palmari,2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced
