Examining FCE and CAE Roger Hawkey, 2009-03-19 This volume examines the historical development of the First Certificate in English FCE and the Certificate in Advanced English CAE Measured Constructs Cyril J. Weir, Ivana Vidaković, Evelina D. Galaczi, 2013-05-23 This volume establishes how English language constructs were measured in Cambridge English examinations over the period 1913 to 2012 An addition to the Studies in Language Testing series this volume provides an overview of English language testing over the last century with coverage of key theoretical and practical aspects of the assessment of reading listening writing and speaking skills It includes examples of the Cambridge English exams old and new and is the first volume to describe in a systematic way the different theoretical influences which have shaped the development of the constructs underlying Cambridge English exams in the last 100 years Teaching and Researching the Pronunciation of English Ewa Waniek-Klimczak, Mirosław Pawlak, 2014-10-17 The book contains contributions from practitioners and theoreticians who explore the pronunciation of English from various perspectives phonetic phonological psycholinguistic and sociolinguistic In accordance with the unifying theme of the volume individual contributions investigate the characteristics of a foreign accent its production and perception study the development of methods and techniques in pronunciation teaching evaluate their use in classroom materials and in the classroom itself and investigate the conditions for second language learning and teaching from the perspective of learners and teachers The book offers a unique combination of a scholarly research with practical applications inspired over the years by the work of Professor W odzimierz Sobkowiak who has researched pronunciation teaching and pioneered technology oriented corpus based approaches to the study of English pronunciation in Poland Examining Speaking Lynda Taylor, 2011-08-25 An up to date review of the relevant literature on assessing speaking The CPA Journal , 2008 Graduate Programs in the Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences 2008 Peterson's Guides Staff, Peterson's, 2007-11 The six volumes of Peterson's Annual Guides to Graduate Study the only annually updated reference work of its kind provide wide ranging information on the graduate and professional programs offered by accredited colleges and universities in the United States and U S territories and those in Canada Mexico Europe and Africa that are accredited by U S accrediting bodies Books 2 through 6 are divided into sections that contain one or more directories devoted to individual programs in a particular field Book 2 contains more than 12 500 programs of study in 152 disciplines of the humanities arts and social sciences English Language Proficiency Testing in Asia Lily I-Wen Su, Cyril J. Weir, Jessica R. W. Wu, 2019-11-19 As the demand for English language education grows in Asia there has been a parallel growth in the development and implementation of standardized tests at the local level Offering much needed context on locally produced tests in Asia contributors examine emerging models for English language assessment and the impact these large scale tests have on the teaching and learning of English Chapters address the following well known and developing high stakes tests in different regions across Asia the GEPT the

TEPS the VSTEP the CET the EIKEN and TEAP and the ELPA Brought together by world renowned testing assessment scholar Cyril Weir and the Language Training and Testing Center LTTC one of Asia's leading testing institutions based in Taiwan this volume is a useful reference for evaluating developing and validating local tests of English and their societal impact Comprehensive and research based chapters cover historic backgrounds sociocultural contexts test quality international standing and future considerations Ideal for graduate students researchers and scholars in language assessment TESOL TEFL and applied linguistics this book will also be of interest to language teaching professionals language test developers and graduate students in Asian studies and international education intercultural communication and intercultural studies

Confronting the Shadow Education System Mark Bray, International Institute for Educational Planning, 2009 This book focuses on the so called shadow education system of private supplementary tutoring In parts of East Asia it has long existed on a large scale and it is now becoming increasingly evident in other parts of Asia and in Africa Europe and North America Pupils commonly receive fee free education in public schools and then at the end of the day and or during week ends and vacations supplementary tutoring in the same subjects on a fee paying basis Supplementary private tutoring can have positive dimensions It helps students to cover the curriculum provides a structured occupation for pupils outside school hours and provides incomes for the tutors However tutoring may also have negative dimensions If left to market forces tutoring is likely to maintain and increase social inequalities and it can create excessive pressure for young people who have inadequate time for non academic activities Especially problematic are situations in which school teachers provide extra tutoring in exchange for fees from their regular pupils This book begins by surveying the scale nature and implications of the shadow education system in a range of settings It then identifies possible government responses to the phenomenon and encourages a proactive approach to designing appropriate policies
