Fyffe,2015-06-13 With education and work being two chief and influential elements in modern society it is important to understand and explore their purpose contributions and how they are impacted by other factors such as gender It is the task of Philosophy to investigate these all important questions as it is a field of study in which people question and create theories about the nature of reality Philosophers concern themselves with more than just the fundamental and mysterious topics as whether or not God exists. The fundamental method of western philosophy is the use of reasoning to evaluate arguments. As such, this book takes a philosophical approach to examining these areas by including arguments from philosophers such as Plato, Aristotle, Augustine, Thomas Aquinas, John Dewey, Søren Aabye Kierkegaard, and Jean Paul Sartre, who have all explored the topic of education and work.

School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa Tsediso Michael Makoelle, Thabo Makhalemele., Pierre du Plessis, 2021-07-29. School Leadership for Democratic Education in South Africa explores the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa, analyzing the state of school leadership in South African schools from the time of the new democratic education dispensation in 1994 to the present day. The book maps out what the future of education in South Africa could look like and explores the most conducive educational environments for change in South African schools. It adopts a critical approach to analyzing leadership and management in the context of school governance, school effectiveness, teacher development, multiculturalism, and equity in education. Contributions explore the democratization and modernization of education in South Africa through examining different perspectives, achievements, and challenges, and also consider issues around access to technology, language policy, and the curriculum, along with new literature on selected aspects of leadership. This book will be of great interest for researchers, scholars, and students in the fields of educational leadership, sociology of education, and teacher education.
