to organizational change through communities of practice

The Principal as Curriculum Leader Allan A.

Glatthorn, Jerry M. Jailall, 2009 I highly recommend this book to new and prospective principals Glatthorn and Jailall provide much food for thought to truly change what is done with curriculum Donnan Stoicovy Principal Park Forest Elementary School State College PA Create the best possible curriculum for your school Strong leadership in curriculum development is an essential element of any school improvement strategy and today's principals play a vital and ever expanding role in the process This revised edition of a best selling classic examines curriculum at the state district school and classroom level and shows how effective principals can incorporate curriculum leadership into their organizational strategy to influence curriculum at each level Based on the most up to date research this resource includes an expanded list of references as well as updated information on the effects of No Child Left Behind the influence of the Interstate School Leaders Licensure Consortium ISLLC the importance of state and national standards and more The authors examine New developments in curriculum standards including the importance of content standards in statewide reforms The gap between the taught and learned curriculum The need for team leadership and professional learning communities Packed with useful guidelines this practical how to guide helps principals collaborate with teachers and district leaders to create a more meaningful curriculum

Curriculum Leadership Allan A. Glatthorn, Floyd Boschee, Bruce M. Whitehead, Bonni F. Boschee, 2018-07-11 This text helps current and aspiring administrators teachers and curriculum directors successfully restructure enhance and implement school K 12 curriculum Now in its Fifth Edition this foundational book highlights 21st century educational ideas and advocacy while also remaining focused on tried and true strategies for meeting state and national standards in today's diverse classrooms With the support of this thought provoking and extensively researched text readers will develop a working and thorough foundation of curriculum to effectively implement in the classrooms of the future International Handbook of Leadership for Learning Tony Townsend, John MacBeath, 2011-07-10 The International Handbook of Leadership for Learning brings together chapters by distinguished authors from thirty one countries in nine different regions of the world The handbook contains nine sections that provide regional overviews a consideration of theoretical and contextual aspects system and policy approaches that promote leadership for learning with a focus on educating school leaders for learning and the role of the leader in supporting learning It also considers the challenge of educating current leaders for this new perspective and how leaders themselves can develop leadership for learning in others and in their organisations especially in diverse contexts and situations The final chapter considers what we now know about leadership for learning and looks at ways this might be further improved in the future The book provides the reader with an understanding of the rich contextual nature of learning in schools and the role of school leaders and leadership development in promoting this It concludes that the preposition for between the two readily known and understood terms of leadership and learning changes everything as it foregrounds learning and complexifies rather than simplifies what that word may mean Whereas common terms such as instructional leadership reduce learning to outcomes leadership for learning embraces a much wider developmental view of learning

Second International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Kenneth A. Leithwood, P. Hallinger, 2012-12-06 The first International Handbook of Educational Leadership and Administration Leithwood et al was published in 1996 and quickly became something of a best seller for reference works within education Such success we suggest was at least partly due to the unprecedented global waves of concern for improving schools launched in the mid 1980 s combined with a widespread belief in leadership as the single most powerful contribution to such improvement The roots of this belief can be found in evidence produced by the early effective schools research although there is a romance with leadership as an explanation for success in many non school enterprises as well During the two year period during which this current handbook was being written activity in the realms of school leadership school improvement and leadership development gained further momentum The English government created its new National College of School Leadership and several Asian nations announced new initiatives in leadership selection preparation and development

Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders Michelle D. Young, Gary M. Crow, 2016-08-19 The Handbook of Research on the Education of School Leaders brings together empirical research on leadership preparation and development to provide a comprehensive overview and synthesis of what we know about preparing school leaders today With contributions from the field s foremost scholars this new edition investigates the methodological foundations of leadership preparation research reviews the pedagogical and curricular features of preparation programs and presents valuable insights into the demographic economic and political factors affecting school leaders This volume both mirrors the first edition s macro level approach to leadership preparation and presents the most up to date research in the field Updates to this edition cover recent state and federal government efforts to improve leadership in education new challenges for the field and significant gaps and critical questions for framing researching evaluating and improving the education of school leaders Sponsored by the University Council of Educational Administration UCEA this handbook is an essential resource for students and scholars of educational leadership as well as practitioners policymakers and other educators interested in professional leadership
