Felder's Comprehensive, 2005 Edition Nick Felder, 2005-07-14 Every industry has its standard professional directory advertising has its Black Book manufacturing its Thomas's Register except that is for architecture and design and construction While there are dozens of smaller directories each addressing a specific market niche none speak to all three industries in a comprehensive way And larger product directories like Sweets are advertising driven and therefore incomplete Felder's Comprehensive is the first pan industry guide of its kind and it is many times more comprehensive than the nearest competitor It is an annual desk reference directory and product source guide with more reference information than any other title currently available It contains thousands of listings of time sensitive and timeless reference information for anyone involved in the business or practice of architecture design design build construction interior design facility management and real estate development For example readers can find listings for more than 12 000 manufacturers of furnishings fixtures equipment and materials listed alphabetically and most importantly by product category Felder's also lists design competitions domestic and international trade shows trade publications and other media trade associations professional organizations and more Most sections are indexed and cross referenced for easy referral and identification Felder's is the first truly comprehensive reference guide of its kind for the A E C marketplace and is certain to become the industry standard

Pricing and Cost Accounting Darrell J. Oyer CPA, 2011-04-01 The essential reference to help federal contractors negotiate and maintain profitable contracts Now in its third edition This is the essential reference to help federal contractors negotiate and maintain profitable contracts and remain in compliance throughout the life of the contract Government contracting rules and regulations have changed significantly over the past six years This new third edition addresses these changes and more New thresholds for certification of cost and pricing data Revisions in cost accounting standards Implementation of commercial time and material and labor hour contracts New stringent ethics requirements Impact of stimulus funding Revised cost principles including excessive pass through costs post retirement benefits and travel costs Redirected audit initiatives based on the GAO review of DCAA Plus changed requirements for bidding pricing cost accounting subcontracting contract modification all the information you need to be in compliance with the new rules No other single book provides as much up to date federal procurement cost and pricing information in such a concise yet comprehensive format

Assessment of the Continuing Operability of Chemical Agent Disposal Facilities and Equipment National Research Council, Division on Engineering and Physical Sciences, Board on Army Science and Technology, Committee on Continuing Operability of Chemical Agent Disposal Facilities and Equipment, 2007-03-08 The U S Army's Chemical Materials Agency CMA currently oversees contracts for the operation of chemical agent stockpile incineration facilities at four disposal sites Because the period of time required to dispose of these chemical agents has grown beyond that originally planned the Army is becoming concerned about the possibility of growing operational problems as the processing equipment

ages To help address these concerns the CMA requested the NRC to assess whether current policies and practices will be able to adequately anticipate and address facility obsolescence issues This report presents a review of potential infrastructure and equipment weaknesses given that the facilities are being operated well beyond their original design lifetime an assessment of the Army s current and evolving obsolescence management programs and offers recommendations about how the programs may be improved and strengthened to permit safe and expeditious completion of agent stockpile destruction and facility closure
