Black Domme Beats Her White Slave:

Women and Mixed Race Representation in Film Valerie C. Gilbert, 2021-09-27 This book uses a black white interracial lens to examine the lives and careers of eight prominent American born actresses from the silent age through the studio era New Hollywood and into the present century Josephine Baker Nina Mae McKinney Fredi Washington Lena Horne Dorothy Dandridge Lonette McKee Jennifer Beals and Halle Berry Combining biography with detailed film readings the author fleshes out the tragic mulatto stereotype while at the same time exploring concepts and themes such as racial identity the one drop rule passing skin color transracial adoption interracial romance and more With a wealth of background information this study also places these actresses in historical context providing insight into the construction of race both onscreen and off

Love Don't Live Here Therone Shellman, 2016-03-07 Love Don't Live Here the first book from a generational series A story about two young women in their early 20 s and takes place during the early 1970 s into the 80 s Barbara loves her boyfriend Trini dearly but finds out the hard way when he leaves her while she s six months pregnant that love is not always what it seems Having to raise their son Jermaine by herself poses to be a great task Like Barbara Beverly also becomes a single mother but through different circumstances Her boyfriend Malik a conscious young man in his early 20 s and is a member of the Black Panther party winds up getting killed during a bank robbery This leaves Beverly to fend for herself and two children Derrik and Tinesha Being a woman she knows what it takes to raise Tinesha into womanhood but is lost when it comes to Derrik The two women invite us into the world of relationships and single motherhood In the end we all find out it s about doing and being the best that one can be

Hustling Against the Odds Jarrel L. Johnson, 2017-07-10 Hustling Against the Odds the book and title was inspired by a national bestseller I read given to me by my father a book he read while in prison called Succeeding Against the Odds which is an autobiography by John H Johnson who was an American businessman John H Johnson was a black man who succeeded going against the odds a black man commonly faces in the American society My book goes into the odds I faced as a black man in that same society making the accomplishments I have this far in life but from a different more unique prospective My book is a tell all about my journey in life thus far and highlights the truth about the American society as it relates to every black person

Sex and Sexuality in Early America Merril D. Smith, 1998-09 Sex and sexuality have always been the subject of much attention both scholarly and popular Yet accounts of the early years of the United States tend to overlook the importance of their influence on the shaping of American culture This book addresses this neglected topic with original research covering a wide spectrum from sexual behavior to sexual perceptions and imagery and more

Women's America Linda K. Kerber, 2016 Featuring a mix of primary source documents articles and illustrations Women s America Refocusing the Past has long been an invaluable resource Now in its eighth edition the book has been extensively revised and updated to cover recent developments in U S women s history

wisdom on the domestic realm of the nineteenth century southern plantation a world in which white mistresses and female slaves labored together to provide food clothing and medicines to the larger plantation community Although divided by race black and white women were joined by common female experiences and expectations of behavior Because work and gender affected them as much as race mistresses and female slaves interacted with one another very differently from the ways they interacted with men Supported by the women s own words Weiner offers fresh interpretations of the ideology of domesticity that influenced women s race relations before the Civil War the gradual manner in which they changed during the war and the harsher behaviors that resulted during Reconstruction A volume in the series Women in American History edited by Anne Firor Scott Nancy A Hewitt and Stephanie Shaw Life in Black and White Brenda E. Stevenson, 1997-11-06 Life in the old South has always fascinated Americans whether in the mythical portrayals of the planter elite from fiction such as Gone With the Wind or in historical studies that look inside the slave cabin Now Brenda E Stevenson presents a reality far more gripping than popular legend even as she challenges the conventional wisdom of academic historians Life in Black and White provides a panoramic portrait of family and community life in and around Loudoun County Virginia weaving the fascinating personal stories of planters and slaves of free blacks and poor to middling whites into a powerful portrait of southern society from the mid eighteenth century to the Civil War Loudoun County and its vicinity encapsulated the full sweep of southern life Here the region s most illustrious families the Lees Masons Carters Monroes and Peytons helped forge southern traditions and attitudes that became characteristic of the entire region while mingling with yeoman farmers of German Scotch Irish and Irish descent and free black families who lived alongside abolitionist Quakers and thousands of slaves Stevenson brilliantly recounts their stories as she builds the complex picture of their intertwined lives revealing how their combined histories guaranteed Loudon s role in important state regional and national events and controversies Both the Declaration of Independence and the U S Constitution for example were hidden at a local plantation during the War of 1812 James Monroe wrote his famous Doctrine at his Loudon estate The area also was the birthplace of celebrated fugitive slave Daniel Dangerfield the home of John Janney chairman of the Virginia secession convention a center for Underground Railroad activities and the location of John Brown s infamous 1859 raid at Harpers Ferry In exploring the central role of the family Brenda Stevenson offers a wealth of insight we look into the lives of upper class women who bore the oppressive weight of marriage and motherhood as practiced in the South and the equally burdensome roles of their husbands whose honor was tied to their ability to support and lead regardless of their personal preference the yeoman farm family s struggle for respectability and the marginal economic existence of free blacks and its undermining influence on their family life Most important Stevenson breaks new ground in her depiction of slave family life Following the lead of historian Herbert Gutman most scholars have accepted the idea that like white slaves embraced the nuclear family both as a living reality and an ideal Stevenson destroys this notion showing that the harsh realities of slavery even for those who belonged to such attentive masters as George Washington allowed little possibility of a nuclear family Far more important were extended kin networks and female headed households Meticulously researched insightful and moving Life in Black and White offers our most detailed portrait yet of the reality of southern life It forever changes our understanding of family and race relations during the reign of the peculiar institution in the American South Venus in Boston George Thompson,2002 This volume reprints three short works by George Thompson one of antebellum America s most successful authors of sensational fiction There are two novels Venus in Boston and City Crimes which depict the American city as a place of dark mystery along with Thompson s autobiography Saturday Review ,1888 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1888 The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science, Art, and Finance ,1888 The Gospel Trumpet Enoch Edwin Byrum,1913 The Coursing calendar, ed. by 'Stonehenge'. John Henry Walsh,1879 Salambo. Tr. by J.S.
