Starting and Running a Nonprofit Organization Joan M. Hummel,1996 Starting and Running a Nonprofit Organization is a book for people who are forming new small nonprofits thinking about converting an informal grassroots group into tax exempt status reorganizing an existing agency or currently managing a nonprofit It provides practical and basic how to information on legal tax organizational and other issues particular to nonprofits This one of a kind resource has been a valuable guide to nonprofit management for decades While much of the information originated in an earlier era of nonprofit formation it remains highly useful for gaining an overview and creating an action plan for people entering this realm of organizational management Its compact format provides information in an easy to understand style The book describes step by step the typical phases of creating and operating a new nonprofit including incorporation establishing a board of directors writing bylaws obtaining tax exempt status creating a strategic plan budgeting and grant seeking understanding accounting principles managing human resources and creating a community relations plan The Center for Nonprofit Management is a department of the Graduate School of Business at the University of St Thomas in Minneapolis and St Paul It provides training and guidance in all aspects of the nonprofit sector to existing organizations as well as individuals or groups who are seeking help in starting a nonprofit

What Every Museum Director Should Know about Working with Boards Edward M. Luby, 2024-09-16 While new directors learn how to manage and lead museums as part of their professional training and career development the skills and knowledge required to work with boards which are instrumental to a museum director's work must somehow be acquired on the job as one's career progresses What Every Museum Director Should Know about Working with Boards is designed to empower new and aspiring museum directors by equipping them with the skills and knowledge to work with boards What Every Museum Director Should Know about Working with Boards uses museum based vignettes of all too true situations encountered by new museum directors to illustrate what museum directors need to understand about their work with museum boards so that they have the skills and knowledge to identify assess and successfully navigate the common issues they will inevitably encounter as a director Following the vignette analysis of the situation and strategic guidance are offered A new director's understanding of how boards are structured and operate how they will interact with the board and what areas they will work on with the board are all critical to a new museum leader's success However busy new directors often do not have time to access the many widely dispersed resources about working with boards or to ascertain what parts of board operations will most affect their daily work Consequently What Every Museum Director Should Know about Working with Boards outlines how boards are organized discusses the common points of contact between the director and the museum's board and examines the kinds of challenges museum directors will likely encounter in working with their boards Given the importance of museum boards to the success of museums and a director's understanding of boards to their own career development What Every Museum Director Should Know about Working with Boards is an essential resource for new and aspiring museum directors
