Service Manual

Corporate governance scholars frequently have argued that corporate social responsibility is important to corporate success or to other organizational outcomes. However, many have been unclear as to what precisely is being argued. For example, are important social outcomes of the firm itself, or outcomes of the firm's stakeholders or community? In this paper, we first discuss the importance of corporate social responsibility to the firm, and then discuss the importance of corporate social responsibility to the community. We then discuss the importance of corporate social responsibility to the firm's stakeholders, and finally, we discuss the importance of corporate social responsibility to the community.
