This study guide focuses upon what the Bible NIV says about the Holy Spirit We gathered together several couples interested in our initial study Then compiled all references to the Holy Spirit in the Bible In the process we found that Scripture actually mentioned heart more often and subsequently looked at and compiled all the references to the heart soul and spirit s in order that we and the other study participants might begin to explore the relationships between the Holy Spirit and these other important parts of being a human being and a Christian The effort of this study was to stay close to the Word that is rather than rely on the interpretations of scholars and other authors we sought to invite the Holy Spirit directly into our hearts through study of the Word In the end we spent the first four weeks studying the references in Scripture to heart soul spirit and demons respectively each week Then we spent a week studying references that included mentions of combinations of heart and soul body and mind Finally we spent three weeks studying Biblical references to the Spirit of God the Spirit of

Jesus and the Holy Spirit to see if we might more clearly discern the operations of the Holy Spirit upon our hearts souls bodies and minds The source material was assembled for our study participants as it is for you in three forms The first is contained in the Appendices it is a direct compilation of the sentences in Scripture that contain each word studied each week The second form entailed Damian arranging those passages thematically and then sequentially removing duplication as well as doing some minimal editing to create a smooth narrative This condensation was quite helpful in discerning patterns between the passages and meaningful relationships among the weekly concepts studied Finally it was especially helpful to us to have this condensed version broken up into negative and positive oriented passages that is proscriptions and warnings don't do and affirmations do do for us in our concluding week of study Charisma and Christian Life ,2002
