1. What does Tony say about small towns? Do you agree? Explain your answer.

Small town people line up each other's butt and some people will tell stories about who sticks in the area. They are prejudicial and judgemental.

2. What is Tony searching for? Why?

He is searching for Christopher Creed. He has never been found. He wants to settle something within himself. He is always searching for him. He can't rest.

Two

3. What is the significance of Christ in the church wearing a cloth?

It is a representation of how we change or add to the truth to save people. He isn't represented naked because it might disgust people too much. He related this to other truths. The Reverend said that the truth was less important than the impact the truth would have on people. The church was always saying don't lie, and here it was lying.

4. How does Tony describe Christopher Creed? Use a specific quotation from the literature to support your answer.

"Sleepston had its weird kids and Chris was one of them."

"Unholy combo of big mouth and huge grin"

"He seemed to forget from one day to the next who he had pissed off"

Three

5. How did Tony and his group of friends treat Creed throughout their school years? How did Tony feel about his actions, how did the other boys feel about their actions? How does Tony act differently from his friends?

Everyone in the group had hit Creed at one point or another. Tony hit him once. The other boys were laughing about it.
