

BRANDS THAT MAKE THE BEST CARS

We rank automakers from best to worst on their scores and survey results.

by JEFF S. KRAFT/CR

How we made the rankings: The Best Buy brand is determined by scores in four key areas: CR's own tests, reliability, owner satisfaction, and safety. For the remaining rating, we sort automakers through more than 30 criteria. Best Value reliability ratings are based on problems reported by owners over 100,000 miles driven in a car's lifetime. For Best Overall, we consider all criteria. Best Overall and Best Value are based on the overall score of all criteria. Best Overall and Best Value are based on the overall score of all criteria. Best Overall and Best Value are based on the overall score of all criteria.

and vehicle longevity of its automakers can show you if the right direction when making a new car purchase. These ratings are based on the average Overall Score, a combination of our most recent reliability, safety, and owner satisfaction data, and reflect the all of the models from each automaker. The top five brands this year are the same ones as 2023, with BMW leading the pack with an 87 score, followed by Subaru, the leading manufacturer brand with 85. This year for both companies is their consistent combination of high and best scores and very good predicted reliability. Porsche takes the third position with a score of 84. Both Porsche and Cadillac moved up 10 positions this year due to their improved reliability. Keep in mind that even high scoring brands can have some lower performing models, so be sure to check the ratings (see page 46) for the auto you're interested in. This is especially true for bigger brands like Ford and Toyota, which have some models that performed far better than others in our tests. (If the brands CR ranked this year were recommending every model rated from worst (BMW, Porsche, Honda, Kia, Mazda, and Audi) Single pick: You can buy and feel more from those companies with confidence. (There are also brands that don't have a single model recommended by CR, Canada carefully when buying one of those.) To be included in the overall ranking, CR has to have tested at least two current models from a company. We've tested only one model from Land Rover, Volvo, and Ram, so they aren't included this year.
