Durkheim and the Collective Consciousness of Society Kenneth Smith Kenneth Smith, 2014-08-01 This volume sets out to explore the use of Emile Durkheim's concept of the collective consciousness of society and represents the first ever book length treatment of this underexplored topic Operating from both a criminological and sociological perspective Kenneth Smith argues that Durkheim's original concept must be sensitively revised and suitably updated for its real relevance to come to the fore Major adjustments to Durkheim's concept of the collective consciousness include Smith's compelling arguments that the model does not apply to everyone equally and that Durkheim's concept does not in any way rely on what might be called the disciplinary functions of society      Doing Double Dutch Elke Brems, Orsolya Réthelyi, Ton van Kalmthout, 2017-05-22 The importance of a minor language in the field of world literature Dutch literature is increasingly understood as a network of texts and poetics connected to other languages and literatures through translations and adaptations In this book a team of international researchers explores how Dutch literary texts cross linguistic historical geophysical political religious and disciplinary borders and reflects on a wide range of methods for studying these myriad border crossings As a result this volume provides insight into the international dissemination of Dutch literature and the position of a smaller less translated language within the field of world literature The title Doing Double Dutch evokes a popular rope skipping game in which two people turn two long jump ropes in opposite directions while a third person jumps them A fitting metaphor for how literature circulates internationally two dynamic spheres the source culture and the target culture engage one another in a complex pattern of movement resulting in a new literary work translation or adaptation formed somewhere in the middle Contributors Chiara Beltrami Gottmer American International School of Rotterdam Peter Boot Huygens ING Pieter Boulogne KU Leuven Elke Brems KU Leuven Michel De Dobbeleer University of Ghent Caroline de Westenholz Louis Couperus Museum Gillis Dorleijn University of Groningen Wilken Engelbrecht Palack University Olomouc Veerle Fraeters University of Antwerp Maud Gonne KU Leuven Christine Hermann University of Vienna Peter Kegel Huygens ING Tessa Lobbes Utrecht University Marijke Meijer Drees University of Groningen Reine Meylaerts KU Leuven Marco Prandoni University of Bologna Marion Prinse Utrecht University Orsolya Réthelyi Eötvös Loránd University Budapest Huygens ING Diana Sanz Roig Universitat Pompeu Fabra Rita Schlusemann Utrecht University Matthieu Sergier Universit Saint Louis Brussels Natalia Stachura Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań Janek Urbaniak University of Wrocław Stephanie Vanasten UCL Louvain la Neuve Ton van Kalmthout Huygens ING Suzanne van Putten Brons Herbert Van Uffelen University of Vienna Marc van Zoggel Huygens ING Nico Wilterdink University of Amsterdam      Rosmini's Contribution to Ethical Philosophy John Favata Bruno, 1916      Living Law Sandro Chignola, 2024-07-12 This book offers a radical new understanding of law beyond the confines of its formalization by the state The book takes off from the late work of Gilles Deleuze and Michel Foucault for whom law and its institutions came to be liberated from an ideological perspective that had treated them as sterile instruments for the reproduction of domination Engaging its continental history it addresses the concept of law not merely as a command but as the result of a much more complex legal operation aimed at dynamically stabilizing the social relations of a community The book thus sidesteps the usual legal political focus on those from Hobbes to Schmitt who have contributed to the categorical scheme of the modern state and with it questions of political representation sovereignty the rigid distinction between public law and private law and so on as it pursues an alternative theoretical trajectory through Ravaissón Tarde and Hauriou Politics the book maintains can no longer be treated simply through the state form And relatedly the law must be seen as a living law a law that cannot be treated exclusively in formal terms but must be taken as a grammar capable of articulating a politics of process relationality and innovation Reconceived as such law can then circumvent the aporias that arise when society is viewed as a private company and the state seen as the bearer of the only possible means of formalizing its relationships At the intersection of law and political theory this book will speak to scholars and others with interests in both these areas and especially those concerned with the limits of both conventional and critical approaches to law
