

The background of the slide features a close-up photograph of several hands of different skin tones pointing at and holding large sheets of paper, likely architectural blueprints or construction documents. The scene is set in a professional office environment. Overlaid on this image are three dark blue chevron-shaped boxes containing text.

Construction Document Technician (CDT)

An overview of the construction documents necessary to construct a building, including project bids and schedules for controlling costs after the contract is awarded.

A practical program for a variety of professionals who would benefit from a greater understanding of construction bidding and scheduling.
