

17. What role does the natural setting (the woods and stream) play in creating tension?
18. Why does the man in the black suit try to convince Gary that his mother is dead?
19. How does the story use contrast between childhood innocence and evil?
20. Why might King have chosen an elderly narrator looking back on his childhood to tell this story?

Level 3 - Evaluation / Connection

21. Do you believe the man in the black suit was real or a product of Gary's imagination? Why?
22. How does this story compare to traditional folktales about meeting the devil?
23. In what ways is Gary's fear relatable, even to modern readers?
24. What does the story suggest about evil and innocence?
25. How might the story be different if told from the perspective of Gary's father?
26. What universal themes does King explore in this story?
27. How does the story reflect the human fear of death?
28. What symbols in the story represent danger or evil?
29. Why do you think Stephen King set the story in a rural, natural environment instead of a city?
30. How does the story challenge or reinforce the idea that children are more perceptive to danger or evil than adults?
