Erin's Sons Terrence M. Punch, 2008 From the time of the earliest European colonies there were Irish settlers in the four provinces of Atlantic Canada Newfoundland and Labrador Prince Edward Island New Brunswick and Nova Scotia Despite the flow of Irish through Atlantic Canada the early records of these immigrants are fewer and less informative than those of New England and New York from the same period Erin's Sons Irish Arrivals in Atlantic Canada 1761-1853 goes a long way toward rectifying this problem Author Terrence M Punch has combed through a wide ranging and disparate group of sources including newspaper articles and advertisements local government documents and census records church records burial records land records military records passenger lists and more to identify as many of these pioneers as possible and disclose where they came from in the Old Country These sources often contain details that cannot be found in Irish records where few census returns survived from before 1901 and where Catholic records began a generation or more after their counterparts in Atlantic Canada Memorial Biographies of New England Historic Genealogical Society, 1853-1855 New England Historic Genealogical Society, 1908 Memorial Biographies of the New England Historic Genealogical Society New England Historic Genealogical Society, 1908 Ireland from the Restoration to the Revolution, 1660-1690 John Patrick Prendergast, 1887 Notes of Cases in the Ecclesiastical & Maritime Courts Great Britain. Supreme Court, 1878 The Law and Equity Reporter, 1877 The Fall of the House of Wilde Emer O'Sullivan, 2016-10-04 The first biography of Oscar Wilde that places him within the context of his family and social and historical milieu a compelling volume that finally tells the whole story It's widely known that Oscar Wilde was precociously intellectual flamboyant and hedonistic but lesser so that he owed these characteristics to his parents Oscar's mother Lady Jane Wilde rose to prominence as a political journalist advocating a rebellion against colonialism in 1848 Proud involved and challenging she opened a salon and was known as the most scintillating hostess of her day She passed on her infectious delight in the art of living to Oscar who drank it in greedily His father Sir William Wilde was acutely conscious of injustices of the social order He laid the foundations for the Celtic cultural renaissance in the belief that culture would establish a common ground between the privileged and the poor Protestant and Catholic But Sir William was also a philanderer and when he stood accused of sexually assaulting a young female patient the scandal and trial sent shockwaves through Dublin society After his death the Wildes decamped to London where Oscar burst irrepressibly upon the scene The one role that didn't suit him was that of Victorian husband as his wife Constance was to discover For beneath his swelling head was a self destructive itch a lifelong devourer of attention Oscar was unable to recognize when the party was over Ultimately his trial for indecency heralded the death of decadence and his own In a major repositioning of our first modern celebrity The Fall of the House of Wilde identifies Oscar Wilde as a member of one of the most dazzling Irish American families of Victorian times and places him in the broader social political and religious context It is a fresh and perceptive account of one of the most prominent characters of the late nineteenth century 1637-1887, the Munson Record Myron Andrews Munson,1896 Obituaries from the Sydney Post-record Wayne Macvicar,Genealogical Association of Nova Scotia,2002 Pioneer Irish of Onondaga Theresa Bannan,1911 The Western Jurist ,1877 Includes Table of cases determined in the Supreme Court of Iowa and published in v 19 29 Iowa reports v 5 Sept 1871 and the Constitution and the Proceedings of the Iowa State Bar Association 1874 78 Irish American Civil War Songs Catherine V.
