

How I spent my holidays

I did a lot things during my last school holidays. One of the most memorable one was the family trip to Teluk Batik Beach.

We travelled in father's new Subaru Outback. It was an awesome experience, the smooth driving and the beautiful scenery made the 2 hours journey so blissful.

Once we reached the island, my father parked his car. A nominal fee was charged for the parking. The beach was beautiful with its clean sea water and soft cool sand.

There were a lot of coconut palms and other trees which provided the much needed shade as the day was quite hot.

We all changed into our swimming costumes, I headed straight to the sea and splashed around in the cool welcoming sea water while my little sister decided to just stick to her sand castles.
