Desert Flower Waris Dirie En Cathleen Miller:

Desert Flower by Waris Dirie and Cathleen Miller Shelley O'Reilly, Waris Dirie, Cathleen Miller, 2001 Desert Flower Waris Dirie, Cathleen Miller, 2009-06-23 Waris's story is one of remarkable courage. From the deserts of Somalia to the world of high fashion, she battles against oppression and emerges a real champion. She is the most beautiful inspiration to anyone. Elton John. Waris Dirie ran away from her oppressive life in the African desert when she was barely in her teens, illiterate and impoverished, with nothing to her name but a tattered shawl. She traveled alone across the dangerous Somali desert to Mogadishu, the first leg of a remarkable journey that would take her to London where she worked as a house servant, then to nearly every corner of the globe as an internationally renowned fashion model, and ultimately to New York City where she became a human rights ambassador for the U.N. Poignant and powerfully told, Desert Flower is Waris's extraordinary story.

Female Genital Mutilation in the book "Desert Flower" by Waris Dirie Nevin Baidoun, 2021-08-16 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Literature Africa grade 2.0 University of Würzburg language English abstract The paper deals with the topic of female genital mutilation in the book Desert Flower by Waris Dirie. Waris Dirie became a bestselling author through her autobiographical novel in which she describes inter alia her childhood in Somalia and thus the genital mutilation she and her sister had to undergo. It is a life story which has contributed a significant part to the worldwide combating of FGM through the establishment of the Desert Flower Foundation. Simultaneously, Waris's success story is a political tool for the world's fight against genital mutilation and for human rights. The principal tool therefore is a natural, non-dramatic perspective exposing her intimate experience which is in this case her and her sister's genital mutilation in their childhood.

Feminist Writings from Ancient Times to the Modern World Tiffany K. Wayne, 2011-10-17 Collecting more than 200 sources in the global history of feminism, this anthology supplies an insightful record of the resistance to patriarchy throughout human history and around the world. From writings by Enheduanna in ancient Mesopotamia (2350 BCE) to the present-day manifesto of the Association of Women for Action and Research in Singapore, Feminist Writings from Ancient Times to the Modern World: A Global Sourcebook and History excerpts more than 200 feminist primary source documents from Africa to the Americas to Australia. Serving to depict feminism as much broader and older than simply the modern struggle for political rights and equality, this two-volume work provides a more comprehensive and varied record of women's resistance cross-culturally and throughout history. The author's goal is to showcase a wide range of writers, thinkers, and organizations in order to document how resistance to patriarchy has been at the center of social, political, and intellectual history since the infancy of human civilization. This work addresses feminist ideas expressed privately through poetry, letters, and autobiographies as well as the public and political aspects of women's rights movements. Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio-political consequences of the migrants' insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds A New

Introduction to Jurisprudence Paul Cliteur,Afshin Ellian,2019-03-28 A New Introduction to Jurisprudence takes one of the central problems of law and jurisprudence as its point of departure what is the law Adopting an intermediate position between legal positivism and natural law this book reflects on the concept of liberal democracy or constitutional democracy In five chapters the book analyses i the idea of higher law ii liberal democracy as a legitimate model for the state iii the separation of church and state or secularism as essential for the democratic state iv the universality of higher law principles v the history of modern political thought This interdisciplinary approach to jurisprudence is relevant for legal scholars philosophers political theorists public intellectuals historians and politicians Literary Translation, Reception, and Transfer Norbert Bachleitner,2020-09-21 The three concepts mentioned in the title of this volume imply the contact between two or more literary phenomena they are based on similarities that are related to a form of travelling and imitation or adaptation of entire texts genres forms or contents Transfer comprises all sorts of travelling with translation as a major instrument of transferring literature across linguistic and cultural barriers Transfer aims at the process of communication starting with the source product and its cultural context and then highlighting the mediation by certain agents and institutions to end up with inclusion in the target culture Reception lays its focus on the receiving culture especially on criticism reading and interpretation Translation therefore forms a major factor in reception with the general aim of reception studies being to reveal the wide spectrum of interpretations each text offers Moreover translations are the prime instrument in the distribution of literature across linguistic and cultural borders thus they pave the way for gaining prestige in the world of literature The thirty eight papers included in this volume and dedicated to research in this area were previously read at the ICLA conference 2016 in Vienna They are ample proof that the field remains at the center of interest in Comparative Literature Somali Piracy Jade Lindley,2016-06-23 Maritime piracy off the coast of Somalia was first recognised as a global concern in 2008 after the hijackings of World Food Programme vessels It remains a serious impediment to international maritime trade and a significant risk to seafarers Bringing a criminological perspective to the subject this book presents an analysis of Somali piracy by means of Routine Activity Theory and regulatory pluralism Based on data from a range of sources including published documents and in depth interviews with representatives of industry government and international organisations the study concludes that no one institution or policy will suffice to control Somali piracy Accordingly a number of different actors and institutions have a role to play in reducing the supply of motivated offenders the vulnerability of prospective victims and in enhancing guardianship The book envisages a holistic counter piracy program based on a pluralistic regulatory model that is sustainable within the region and managed by the region providing the best opportunity for both the immediate future and for long term success This study will be essential reading for criminologists public policy and legal scholars as well as policy makers and regulators in countries affected by and dealing with piracy and international professional advocacy groups operating in the maritime space

Africa and Its Significant Others

,2016-08-09 When did the intimate dialogue between Africa Europe and the Americas begin Looking back it seems as if these three continents have always been each other's significant others Europe created its own modern identity by using Africa as a mirror but Africans traveled to Europe and America long before the European age of discovery and African cultures can be said to lie at the root of European culture This intertwining has become ever more visible Nowadays Africa emerges as a highly visible presence in the Americas and African American styles capture Europe's youth many of whom are of North African descent This entanglement however remains both productive and destructive The continental economies are intertwined in ways disastrous for Africa and African knowledge is all too often exported and translated for US and European scholarly aims which increases the intercontinental knowledge gap This volume proposes a fresh look at the vigorous and painful but inescapable relationships between these significant others It does so as a gesture of gratitude and respect to one of the pioneering figures in this field Dutch Africanist and literary scholar Mineke Schipper who is taking her leave from her chair in Intercultural Literary Studies at the University of Leiden Where have the past four decades of African studies brought us What is the present day state of this intercontinental dialogue Sixteen of Mineke's colleagues and friends in Europe Africa and the Americas look back and assess the relations and debates between Africa Europe America Ann Adams Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Liesbeth Bekers Wilfried van Damme Ariel Dorfman Peter Geschiere Kathleen Gyssels Isabel Hoving Frans Willem Korsten Babacar M Baye Harry Olufunwa Ankie Peypers Steven Shankman Miriam Tlali and Chantal Zabus write about the place of Africa in today's African Diaspora about what sisterhood between African and European women really means about the drawbacks of an overly strong focus on culture in debates about Africa about Europe's reluctance to see Africa as other than its mirror or its playing field about the images of Africans in seventeenth century Dutch writing about genital excision the flaunting of the African female body and the new self writing about new ways to look at classic African novels and about the invigorating disturbing political art of intercultural reading

Hot Johnny (And the Women Who Loved Him) Sandra Jackson-Opoku, Sandra Jackso Opoku, 2002-01-02 John the Baptist Wright has touched the lives of many women heart body and soul but in this novel it is each of the women who gave Hot Johnny his heat who tell the story Among them is Destiny the woman he married but couldn't save Tree the college soulmate who first tasted tenderness with Johnny's touch Peaches the prostitute who gave the boy his name and sealed his reputation and his grandmother who holds the key to his salvation Each provides a piece of the puzzle until at last Hot Johnny is brought into dazzling focus A powerful novel of redemption
