Bishop Moynagh Of Calabar:

Bishop James Moynagh of Calabar Colman M. Cooke, 2014 This biography charts the life of Bishop James Moynagh from his birth in Cavan Ireland through to his missionary work in Nigeria and back to Ireland where he spent his last years in Kiltegan

Dominic Ignatius Ekandem 1917-1995 Michael I. Edem CM, 2018-07-31 A phenomenon seldom recognized in the media of Western Europe and North America is the extraordinary growth of the Catholic Church of South America and sub Saharan Africa during the last five decades and nowhere more than in Nigeria A key figure in that country and in that growth up to his death in 1995 was Cardinal Ekandem the first Anglophone West African bishop the first of many and an outstanding churchman of the 20th Century Fr Michael Edem s scholarly biography of the Cardinal is a fascinating account of a journey from life in a traditional African village to the consistory of cardinals of the Catholic Church in Rome It will be of enormous interest to a wider public for the author s personal knowledge of the cardinal and of the Efik Ibibio culture in which they both grew up

Documents on Irish Foreign Policy: 1965-1969 Royal Irish Academy, National Archives of Ireland, 1998 The thirteenth volume in the Documents on Irish Foreign Policy DIFP series runs from April 1965 to July 1969 It covers the Fianna F il governments of Se n Lemass April 1965 to November 1966 and Jack Lynch November 1966 to July 1969 in which Frank Aiken was Minister for External Affairs The four years and three months covered by DIFP XIII saw significant changes in the international context in which Ireland conducted its foreign policy In 1965 the hope of the Department of External Affairs was that Ireland would enter the European Economic Community EEC before 1970 EEC entry would take place alongside that of Britain an Anglo Irish Free Trade Area AIFTA having come into operation in 1966 cementing trade between Ireland and its principal trading partner Overall the United Nations would remain the benchmark of global Irish foreign policy Peacekeeping advocating nuclear non proliferation and ensuring the proper financing of the United Nations as well as promoting decolonisation and the universality of the United Nations system within the bipolar world of the Cold War remained central to 1960s Irish foreign policy These assumptions were thrown out of balance by the continuing refusal of France to facilitate the expansion of the EEC and EEC membership remained out of reach for Ireland Dublin s fragile relations with Belfast were destabilised with the emergence of new social and political forces in Northern Ireland and the recurrence of sectarian violence The Department of External Affairs proved initially unable to respond

comprehensively to this new environment in Northern Ireland which was the precursor to the outbreak of the Troubles in 1969 Improved economic and political relations with London were affected by local and international economic difficulties and also as a consequence of events in Northern Ireland At the United Nations superpower politics constrained Irish attempts to follow up the success of the 1968 Nuclear Non Proliferation Treaty with a major policy initiative on the financing of international peacekeeping missions Who's who in Cross River State Kammonke Abam,2002 The Politics of Humanitarian Organizations Intervention Ndubisi Obiaga,2004 Nigeria stands to become the most populous country in Africa accounting for perhaps one fifth of the continent s entire population With its diverse cultures and abundant natural wealth it has attracted attention on the international level Since gaining its independence from Britain in1960 and the advent of civil war from 1967 to 1970 Nigeria has been in an upheaval of political and economic change The military rule of the country for more than three decades has further contributed to the breakdown of its first and second republics This book takes a close look at an aspect of Nigeria s development that has to date received inadequate attention the role that humanitarian organizations played during the civil war Using foreign policy historical analysis and the traditional law concept in defining intervention this book will broaden the overall scope of critically analyzing the effect that non governmental agents in a society have on foreign relations By focusing on the role of the humanitarian organization as a societal determinant of foreign policy in the Nigerian Civil War which demonstrates that local humanitarian actions dovetail into international foreign policy choices that are overly political this book fills an up until now serious gap in the literature of Nigeria s development
