City of Segregation Andrea Gibbons, 2018-09-18 A majestic one hundred year study of segregation in Los Angeles City of Segregation documents one hundred years of struggle against the enforced separation of racial groups through property markets constructions of community and the growth of neoliberalism This movement history covers the decades of work to end legal support for segregation in 1948 the 1960s Civil Rights movement and CORE's efforts to integrate LA's white suburbs and the 2006 victory preserving 10 000 downtown residential hotel units from gentrification enfolded within ongoing resistance to the criminalization and displacement of the homeless Andrea Gibbons reveals the shape and nature of the racist ideology that must be fought in Los Angeles and across the United States if we hope to found just cities

West of Harlem Emily Lutenski, 2015-06-22 Luminaries of the Harlem Renaissance Langston Hughes Jean Toomer Wallace Thurman and Arna Bontemps among others are associated with well Harlem But the story of these New York writers unexpectedly extends to the American West Hughes for instance grew up in Kansas Thurman in Utah and Bontemps in Los Angeles Toomer traveled often to New Mexico Indeed as West of Harlem reveals the West played a significant role in the lives and work of many of the artists who created the signal urban African American cultural movement of the twentieth century Uncovering the forgotten histories of these major American literary figures the book gives us a deeper appreciation of that movement and of the cultures it reflected and inspired These recovered experiences and literatures paint a new picture of the American West one that better accounts for the disparate African American populations that dotted its landscape and shaped the multiethnic literatures and cultures of the borderlands Tapping literary biographical historical and visual sources Emily Lutenski tells the New Negro movement's western story Hughes's move to Mexico opens a window on African American transnational experiences Thurman's engagement with Salt Lake City offers an unexpected perspective on African American sexual politics Arna Bontemps's Los Angeles constructed in conjunction with Louisiana provides a new vision of the Spanish borderlands Lesser known writer Anita Scott Coleman imagines black Western autonomy through domesticity The experience of others like Toomer invited to socialite Mabel Dodge Luhan's circle of artists in Taos present a more pluralistic view of the West It was this place with its transnational and multiracial mix of Native Americans Latinos Anglos and African Americans which buttressed Toomer's idea of a new American race Turning the lens elsewhere Lutenski also explores how Latino Asian American and Native American western writers understood and represented African Americans in the early twentieth century borderlands The result is a new unusually nuanced and unexpectedly complex view of key figures of the Harlem Renaissance and the borderlands cultures that influenced their art in surprising and important ways

Identity & Affirmation, 2011 The Western Journal of Black Studies, 2011 Amerasia Journal, 2012 Bunche Review, 2013 Counted Out Brian Powell, 2010-09 When state voters passed the California Marriage Protection Act Proposition 8 in 2008 it restricted the definition of marriage to a legal union between a man and a woman The act's passage further agitated an already roiling debate about whether American notions of family could or should expand to include for example same sex marriage unmarried cohabitation and gay adoption But how do Americans really define family The first study to explore this largely overlooked question Counted Out asks men and women of different ages races religions and socioeconomic backgrounds to share their opinions on what counts as family and what doesn't The book examines these currents in public opinion to assess their policy implications and to predict how Americans' definitions of family may change in the future

From Conflict to Convergence Regina Marie Freer, 1999 Jamaican Immigrants in the United States and Canada Terry-Ann Jones, 2008 American Urban Politics in a Global Age Paul Kantor, Dennis R. Judd, 2008 In this thoroughly revised reader two leading scholars bring together a collection of readings that highlight the most important trends in urban scholarship today The engaging selections incorporated into American Urban Politics in the Global Era are arranged and presented within a clear thematic structure and with commentaries by the editors In addition to the political economy perspective emphasized in previous editions of the reader this new edition highlights the impact of globalization on urban politics and policy today The historical and contemporary readings reveal how the interaction of local national and international forces is reshaping the political landscape of urban America
