Shingwauk's Vision J.R. Miller, 1996-05-24 With the growing strength of minority voices in recent decades has come much impassioned discussion of residential schools the institutions where attendance by Native children was compulsory as recently as the 1960s Former students have come forward in increasing numbers to describe the psychological and physical abuse they suffered in these schools and many view the system as an experiment in cultural genocide In this first comprehensive history of these institutions J R Miller explores the motives of all three agents in the story He looks at the separate experiences and agendas of the government officials who authorized the schools the missionaries who taught in them and the students who attended them Starting with the foundations of residential schooling in seventeenth century New France Miller traces the modern version of the institution that was created in the 1880s and finally describes the phasing out of the schools in the 1960s He looks at instruction work and recreation care and abuse and the growing resistance to the system on the part of students and their families Based on extensive interviews as well as archival research Miller s history is particularly rich in Native accounts of the school system This book is an absolute first in its comprehensive treatment of this subject J R Miller has written a new chapter in the history of relations between indigenous and immigrant peoples in Canada Co winner of the 1996 Saskatchewan Book Award for nonfiction Winner of the 1996 John Wesley Dafoe Foundation competition for Distinguished Writing by Canadians Named an Outstanding Book on the subject of human rights in North America by the Gustavus Myer Center for the Study of Human Rights in North America William Greaves Scott MacDonald, Jacqueline Najuma Stewart, 2021-06-01 William Greaves is one of the most significant and compelling American filmmakers of the past century Best known for his experimental film about its own making Symbiopsychotaxiplasm Take One Greaves was an influential independent documentary filmmaker who produced directed shot and edited more than a hundred films on a variety of social issues and on key African American figures ranging from Muhammad Ali to Ralph Bunche to Ida B Wells A multitalented artist his career also included stints as a songwriter a member of the Actors Studio and during the late 1960s a producer and cohost of Black Journal the first national television show focused on African American culture and politics This volume provides the first comprehensive overview of Greaves s remarkable career It brings together a wide range of material including a mix of incisive essays from critics and scholars Greaves s own writings an extensive meta interview with Greaves conversations with his wife and collaborator Louise Archambault Greaves and his son David and a critical dossier on Symbiopsychotaxiplasm Together they illuminate Greaves s mission to use filmmaking as a tool for transforming the ways African Americans were perceived by others and the ways they saw themselves This landmark book is an essential resource on Greaves s work and his influence on independent cinema and African American culture A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles: part 1. music. Music. Accessions, pt.[1]-94 British museum dept. of pr. books,1884 Severing the Ties that Bind Katherine Pettipas,1994-10-28 Religious ceremonies were an inseparable part of Aboriginal traditional life reinforcing social economic and political values However missionaries and government officials with ethnocentric attitudes of cultural superiority decreed that Native dances and ceremonies were immoral or un Christian and an impediment to the integration of the Native population into Canadian society Beginning in 1885 the Department of Indian Affairs implemented a series of amendments to the Canadian Indian Act designed to eliminate traditional forms of religious expression and customs such as the Sun Dance the Midewiwin the Sweat Lodge and giveaway ceremonies However the amendments were only partially effective Aboriginal resistance to the laws took many forms community leaders challenged the legitimacy of the terms and the manner in which the regulations were implemented and they altered their ceremonies the times and locations the practices in an attempt both to avoid detection and to placate the agents who enforced the law Katherine Pettipas views the amendments as part of official support for the destruction of indigenous cultural systems She presents a critical analysis of the administrative policies and considers the effects of government suppression of traditional religious activities on the whole spectrum of Aboriginal life focussing on the experiences of the Plains Cree from the mid 1880s to 1951 when the regulations pertaining to religious practices were removed from the Act She shows how the destructive effects of the legislation are still felt in Aboriginal communities today and offers insight into current issues of Aboriginal spirituality including access to and use of religious objects held in museum repositories protection of sacred lands and sites and the right to indigenous religious practices in prison Characterization of Minerals, Metals, and Materials 2015 John S. Carpenter,Chengguang Bai,J. Pablo Escobedo-Diaz, Jiann-Yang Hwang,Shadia Ikhmayies,Bowen Li,Jian Li,Sergio Neves Monteiro,Zhiwei Peng,Mingming Zhang,2015-02-18 This collection of proceedings focuses on the characterization of minerals metals and materials as well as the application of characterization results on the processing of these materials Papers cover topics such as clays ceramics composites ferrous metals non ferrous metals minerals electronic materials magnetic materials environmental materials advanced materials and soft materials In addition papers covering materials extraction materials processing corrosion welding solidification and method development are included This book provides a current snapshot of characterization in materials science and its role in validating informing and driving current theories in the field of materials science This proceedings volume will serve the dual purpose of furnishing abroad introduction of the field to novices while simultaneously serving to keep subject matter experts up to date Native but Foreign Brenden W. Rensink,2018-06-13 Winner 2019 Spur Award for Best Historical Nonfiction Book sponsored by Western Writers of America In Native but Foreign historian Brenden W Rensink presents an innovative comparison of indigenous peoples who traversed North American borders in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries examining Crees and Chippewas who crossed the border from Canada into Montana and Yaquis from Mexico who migrated into Arizona The resulting history questions how opposing national borders affect and react differently to Native identity and offers new insights into what it has meant to be indigenous or an immigrant Rensink's findings counter a prevailing theme in histories of the American West namely that the East was the center that dictated policy to the western periphery On the contrary Rensink employs experiences of the Yaquis Crees and Chippewas to depict Arizona and Montana as an active and mercurial blend of local political economic and social interests pushing back against and even reshaping broader federal policy Rensink argues that as immediate forces in the borderlands molded the formation of federal policy these Native groups moved from being categorized as political refugees to being cast as illegal immigrants subject to deportation or segregation in both cases this legal transition was turbulent Despite continued staunch opposition Crees Chippewas and Yaquis gained legal and permanent settlements in the United States and successfully broke free of imposed transnational identities Accompanying the thought provoking text a vast guide to archival sources across states provinces and countries is included to aid future scholarship Native but Foreign is an essential work for scholars of immigration indigenous peoples and borderlands studies Biologia Centrali-Americana: pt. 1 and supplement.
