Black Science Chapitre:

The End of Black Studies Clovis E. Semmes, 2016-08-12 Following a history of racial oppression and segregation Black Americans were able to move in greater numbers into previously all or predominantly White colleges and universities However they encountered normative structures that excluded or distorted the Black experience and denied Black perspectives As a result Black studies grew up reconstructing the humanity of a historically oppressed devalued and exploited group Knowledge production in Black studies offers distinct insights into the strength and resiliency of the human spirit and poses exemplary models for enlightened social change This book examines the foundational parameters and historical mission of the field of African American Studies which emerged from a broad based Black intellectual tradition defined by the metaproblem of cultural hegemony Semmes seeks to broaden our thinking about the scope and content of Black studies The End of Black Studies identifies Afrocentric or Black centered approaches to knowledge production that are distinctly different from yet inclusive of a historiographical emphasis on ancient Egypt but alternative to the claim of a singular African worldview This book will appeal to students and scholars interested in the field of Black Studies including African American studies Africana studies Africology and Pan African studies It will be a source of critical discussion for graduate seminars examining theory building and or knowledge production research and writing in Black studies The End of Black Studies has received the 2017 Outstanding Book Award from the National Council for Black Studies Read the Introduction for free online using our eBook widget
