The Complete Aubrey/Maturin Novels Patrick O'Brian, 2004

All Hands on Deck Will Sofrin, 2023-04-18 A maritime adventure memoir that follows a crew of misfits hired by Hollywood to sail an 18th century warship 5 000 miles for the making of a beloved blockbuster film An unbelievable ride Will Sofrin has lived the real experiences and survived to tell the tale Dan Shotz Emmy Award winning producer of Black Sails In the late 1990s Patrick O Brian s multimillion copy selling historical novel series the Aubrey Maturin series which was set during the Napoleonic Wars seemed destined for film With Russell Crowe as Jack Aubrey and Paul Bettany as Stephen Maturin the production only needed a ship that could stand in for Lucky Jack's HMS Surprise with historical accuracy paramount. The filmmakers found the Rose, a replica of an 18th century ship that would work perfectly. Only there was one problem: the Rose was in Newport, Rhode Island, not in Southern California where they would be filming. Enter a ragtag crew of thirty oddballs who stepped up for the task, including Will Sofrin, at the time a 21 year old wooden boat builder and yacht racer who joined as the ship's carpenter. All Hands on Deck is Sofrin's memoir of the epic adventure delivering the Rose to Hollywood. It's a story of reinvention of hard work on the high seas, of love and of survival. The Rose was an example of the most cutting edge technology of her era, but in the 21st century barely anyone had experience sailing it. The crew effectively went back in time, brought to life the old ways of a forgotten world, and barely lived to tell the tale. Just a few days in a terrifying hurricane strength storm nearly sank the Rose, and later a rogue wave caused a nearly fatal dismasting. And the ups and downs weren't limited to the waves; with the crew split into factions, making peace between warring camps became necessary, too, as did avoiding pirates and braving the temptations of shore leave. All Hands on Deck is a gripping story of an unforgettable journey and a must read for fans who adore O'Brien's novels and the dramatic film adaptation of the Academy Award nominated Master and Commander.

Four volumes of history and biography for fans of the Aubrey-Maturin novels, with lore on the Royal Navy and much more. What is a sandgrouse and where does it live? What are the medical properties of lignum vitae and how did Stephen Maturin use it to repair his viola? Who is Adm Lord Keith and why is his wife so friendly with Capt Jack Aubrey? More than any other contemporary author, Patrick O'Brien knew the past. His twenty Aubrey-Maturin novels, beginning with Master and Commander in 1969, are distinguished by deep characterization, heart-stopping naval combat, and an attention to detail that enriches and enlivens his stories. In the revised edition of A Sea of Words, Dean King and his collaborators dive into Jack Aubrey's world. In the revised edition of Harbors and High Seas, King details not just where Aubrey and Maturin went, but how they got there. Packed with maps and illustrations from the greatest age of sail, it is an incomparable reference for devotees of O'Brien's novels and anyone who has dreamed of climbing aboard a warship, as well as a captivating portrait of life on the sea during a time when nothing stood between man and ocean but grit, daring, and a few creaking planks of wood. At the dawn of the nineteenth century, the British navy was the mightiest instrument of war the world had ever known. The Royal Navy patrolled the seas from India to the Caribbean, connecting an empire with footholds in every corner of the earth. Such a massive navy required the service of more than 100,000 men, from officers to deckhands to surgeons. Their stories are collected in Every Man Will Do His Duty. The inspiration for the bestselling novels of Patrick O'Brien and C.S. Forester, these twenty-two memoirs and diaries, edited by Dean King, provide a true portrait of life aboard British warships during one of the most significant eras of world history. Patrick O'Brien was well into his seventies when the world fell in love with his greatest creation, the maritime adventures of Royal Navy Capt Jack Aubrey and ship's surgeon Stephen Maturin. But despite his fame, little detail was available about the life of the reclusive author whose mysterious past King uncovers in this groundbreaking biography King traces O Brian's personal history from his beginnings as a London born Protestant named Richard Patrick Russ to his tortured relationship with his first wife and child to his emergence from World War II with the entirely new identity under which he would publish twenty volumes in the Aubrey Maturin series What King unearths is a life no less thrilling than the seafaring world of O Brian's imagination Patrick O Brian A Life Revealed is a penetrating and insightful examination of one of the modern world's most acclaimed historical novelists Patrick O'Brian Dean King, 2001 Published on the first anniversary of his death this meticulously researched biography delves into the secrecy and confusion surrounding Patrick O Brian author of the Aubrey Maturin series of novels O Brian devotees should rejoice in this account of his life written with appreciative balance rich with literary insight Los Angeles Times 16 page photo insert The Final Unfinished Voyage of Jack Aubrey Patrick O'Brian, 2004 Includes facsimile of the manuscript 100 Must-read Books for Men Stephen E.
