Deux Enquêtes De Sherlock Holmes:

From Surrealism to Less-Exquisite Cadavers Michelle Emanuel, 2006-01-01 Les nouveaux mystères de Paris 1954
1959 Le Malet's fifteen novel detective series inspired by Eugène Sue's nineteenth century feuilleton almost achieved the goal of setting a mystery in each of the twenty Parisian arrondissements with Nestor Burma at the center of the action In Burma the detective de choc first introduced in 1943's 120 rue de la gare Malet considered the father of the French roman noir creates a cultural hybrid bringing literary references and surrealist techniques to a criminal milieu Michelle Emanuel's groundbreaking study is particularly insightful in its treatment of Malet as a pioneer within the literary genre of the French roman noir while making sure to also focus on his surrealist roots Against the archetypes of Simenon's Maigret and Christie's Poirot Burma is brash and streetwise peppering his speech with colorful and evocative slang As the reader's tour guide Burma highlights Paris's forgotten past while providing insight to the Paris of his present referencing both popular culture and contemporary issues Malet's innovation of setting a noir narrative in France serves as a catalyst for further change in the policier genre in France including his contemporary Jean Amila the non-polar of Jean Patrick Manchette and the historical roman noir of Didier Daeninckx
