Dear [Recipient Name],

I am writing to formally request consideration for early graduation due to my academic excellence throughout my studies at [Institution Name]. As of [current date], I have completed all necessary coursework and maintained a GPA of [Your GPA], which reflects my dedication and commitment to my education.

My academic achievements have not only prepared me for graduation but have also given me the opportunity to [mention any accomplishments, scholarships, or relevant extracurricular activities]. I believe that graduating early will allow me to pursue [mention your future plans, such as higher education or career opportunities] sooner and contribute positively to my aspirations.

I appreciate your time in reviewing my request. I would be grateful for the opportunity to discuss this matter further and provide any documentation necessary to support my case.

Thank you for considering my request. I look forward to your positive response.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]

Getting the Runaround John M. Halushka, 2023-09-19 Getting the Runaround takes readers into the bureaucratic spaces of prisoner reentry examining how returning citizens navigate the institutional circuit of parole offices public assistance programs rehabilitation facilities shelters and family courts Drawing on three years of ethnographic fieldwork and forty five in depth interviews with formerly incarcerated men returning to New York City John M Halushka argues that the very institutions charged with facilitating the transition from incarceration to community life perversely undermine reintegration by imposing a litany of bureaucratic obstacles This runaround is not merely a series of inconveniences but rather an extension of state punishment that exacerbates material poverty and diminishes citizenship rights By telling the stories of men caught in vicious cycles of poverty bureaucratic processing and social control Halushka demonstrates the urgent need to shift reentry away from an austerity driven compliance based framework and toward a vision of social justice and inclusion
