Scribes Anke Holdenried, 2017-05-15 The Sibylla Tiburtina is a Latin prophecy attributed to a prophetess from classical antiquity. It concludes with an account of the End of History involving the coming of the Antichrist and his battle with a Last World Emperor. Approximately 100 manuscripts written between the mid 11th and the 16th centuries survive which testify to the Tiburtina's immense popularity in the medieval West as such the Tiburtina is a key text for understanding medieval apocalypticism and occupies an important place in the intellectual history of the Middle Ages. However studies of the manuscripts and the history of the text have been largely neglected in comparison with other similar works so little is currently known about who copied and read the prophecy. Dr Holdenried's research fills this gap. This study is based on an examination of all surviving manuscripts and includes an analysis of the textual material which accompanies the Tiburtina a survey of titles and annotations as well as research on variant texts including several hitherto unknown. Modern historiography regards the Tiburtina solely as a vehicle for expressing contemporary political concerns triggered by crises thought to herald the End of the World. This book provides a much more varied picture and offers a new approach to the Tiburtina by placing it for the first time in the context of medieval traditions which saw Sibylline prophecy as independent non-Christian evidence of Christ's life and as confirmation of His divinity. As is shown these traditions had a major impact on the reception of the Tiburtina. The book concludes with a repertory of the manuscripts together with brief outlines of individual textual traditions as represented in groups of manuscripts which will constitute a valuable reference source for other scholars.

My People's Passover Haggadah Lawrence A. Hoffman, David Arnow, 2008 This empowering resource for the spiritual revival of our times enables us to find deeper meaning in one of Judaism's most beloved traditions the Passover Seder. This Haggadah commentary adds layer upon layer of new insight to the age-old celebration of the journey from slavery to freedom and makes its power accessible to all. It features traditional Hebrew text with a new translation designed to let people know exactly what the Haggadah says. Introductory essays help the reader understand the historical roots of the ancient holiday the development of the Haggadah and how to make sense out of texts and customs that evolved over more than a thousand years. Framed with beautifully designed Talmud style pages My People's Passover Haggadah features commentaries by scholars from all denominations of Judaism. Readers are treated to insights by experts in such fields as the Haggadah's history its biblical roots its confrontation with modernity and its relationship to rabbinic midrash and Jewish law feminism Chasidism theology and kabbalah. No other volume provides the English language reader with such wide-ranging understanding of the Haggadah the key to having the most meaningful Seder ever. cognitive psychology to provide a unique contribution to the field of Cognitive Literary Studies The book presents an investigation of metaphor in poetic texts adopting and developing empirical methods used by Gestalt Psychology while integrating concepts informed by Gestalt Psychology The title indicates an intellectual tradition to be termed the Gestalt of the Mind that begins with the W rzburg School of Psychology and its subsequent development into Gestalt Psychology which provides a rich heritage for the field of Cognitive Literary Studies The title further indicates an intellectual and creative tradition to be termed the Gestalt of the Text applied to various literary schools Medieval Early Modern Modernist Finally the Gestalt Interaction Theory of Metaphor delineates the potentialities for different types of readings of poetic metaphor This book further makes three significant contributions the first is the focus on the empirical investigation of metaphor in poetic texts the second is the integration of the aspects of problem solving bidirectionality of metaphor embodied cognition and the grotesque in analyzing poetic texts and verbal protocols and the third is the focus on various literary traditions spanning languages and periods The goal of this book is to present an interdisciplinary study of the Gestalts of Mind and Text This will
