Gaston Ares, Paula Varela

Consumer Studies Exemplar 2014:

Methods in Consumer Research, Volume 2 Gaston Ares, Paula Varela, 2018-01-02 Methods for Consumer Research Volume Two Alternative Approaches and Special Applications brings together world leading experts in global consumer research who provide a fully comprehensive state of the art coverage of emerging methodologies and their innovative application. The book puts consumer research in context with coverage of immersive techniques and virtual reality while also looking at health related issues in consumer science including sections on food intake and satiation. Other sections delve into physiological measurements within the context of consumer research and how to design studies for specific populations. In conjunction with the first volume which covers new approaches to classical methodology this book is an invaluable reference for academics working in the fields of sensory and consumer science, psychology, marketing and nutrition. With examples of the methodology being applied throughout it serves as a practical guide to research and development managers in both food and non food companies. Presents comprehensive coverage of new and emerging techniques in consumer science. Provides examples of successful application of the methodologies presented throughout. Identifies how to design research for special populations including children, the elderly and low income consumers. Discusses sensitivity to cross cultural populations and emerging markets. Includes research design for food, cosmetic and household products. Highlights both psychological and physiological consumer measurements. Handbook of Qualitative Research Methods in Marketing Russell W. Belk, Cele Otnes, 2024-09-06 This fully revised second edition of a best selling Handbook is an essential resource for qualitative researchers and practitioners in marketing. Developments in artificial intelligence and software have contributed to huge changes in qualitative methodologies since the first edition was published in 2006 and this updated Handbook acknowledges and critiques these fascinating scholarly advancements. This title contains one or more Open Access chapters. Engaging Consumers through Branded Entertainment and Convergent Media Parreno, Jose Marti, 2015-04-30 Branded entertainment is gaining popularity within marketing communications strategies. Blurring the lines between advertisements and editorial content, branded marketing provides advertisers and consumers with highly engaging media content that benefits them both. Engaging Consumers through Branded Entertainment and Convergent Media provides an interdisciplinary approach to connecting with the consumer through branding strategies in the entertainment and media fields. Featuring information regarding emergent research and techniques, this publication is a critical reference source for academics, university teachers, researchers and post graduate students as well as universities, advertising agencies, marketing directors, brand managers and professionals interested in the usage and benefits of branded entertainment. Biometrics and Neuroscience Research in Business and Management Luiz Moutinho, Moran Cerf, 2024-06-17 This book is designed to impart and convey knowledge as well as understanding of the range of biometric technologies and cyber technologies while also stressing their advantages and disadvantages. The authors develop an appreciation for and breadth of knowledge that spans the full range of neuroscience.

Why Do They Make Things so Complicated? Lisa Monika Anna Mützel, 2017-05-05 In the past 50 years consumers buying situations have not become easier Consumers remain easily overwrought by complex buying situations that involve buying complex products or services such as laptops or insurances In such situations consumers find it difficult to make a decision and must spend high levels of cognitive effort on it Prior consumer research has addressed the complexity of buying situations in several research streams such as in choice complexity or product complexity literature However previous researchers have not reached consensus on what constitutes the complexity of a buying situation Furthermore they have mostly concentrated on cognitive constructs and emotional constructs have been rather unexplored To close these research gaps this dissertation provides an in depth conceptualization of complex buying situations by developing a comprehensive reference framework Furthermore this dissertation differs from prior research by examining in detail negative emotional responses to complexity NERCO A reliable and valid NERCO scale is developed that consists of two factors emotional resignation and fear of post purchase dissonance An experiment investigates the influence of two input variables of the reference framework 1 the number of alternatives in the consumer s price class and 2 the perceived expertise of the salesperson who provides a recommendation in a buying situation on perceived choice complexity and on NERCO This dissertation paves the way for numerous directions for future research on the complexity of buying situations by providing theoretical fundamentals in the form of a detailed conceptualization and by precisely defining the research gaps

Postmodern Consumer Research Elizabeth C. Hirschman, Morris B. Holbrook, 1992-07-29 Published in cooperation with the Association for Consumer Research A clearly written and useful work Their book lays out organizing principles that delineate the underlying epistemologies current in consumer research providing insightful exposure to philosophical positions and associated research methods for both the experienced researcher and the novice The book provides insight into current epistemologies and associated methods and is an important resource for all consumer behavior researchers It should be taken as a starting point for delving into and understanding consumer research a springboard that directs the researcher to relevant theorists and provides a framework for assessing research perspectives Journal of Marketing Research The methodological choices now confronting consumer researchers are daunting For many years researchers have wrestled with issues related to the nature of knowledge in the study of consumption phenomena In Postmodern Consumer Research Elizabeth C Hirschman and Morris B Holbrook examine philosophies and methods of consumer research along an objectivist subjectivist continuum First they present philosophical concepts regarding the origin and content of knowledge relevant to consumer behavior phenomena Then they consider a set of research methods aimed at implementing inquiry from the viewpoint of each particular philosophical perspective They conclude by discussing criteria for evaluating research conducted using the various methods and argue for increased collegial harmony and temperance An invaluable contribution to the field this volume will interest researchers professionals and students in the areas of management qualitative research organizational studies and research methods
