The Pedagogy of Adaptation Dennis Cutchins, Laurence Raw, James M. Welsh, 2010-02-23 From All Quiet on the Western Front and Gone with the Wind to No Country for Old Men and Slumdog Millionaire many of the most memorable films have been adapted from other sources And while courses on film studies are taught throughout the world The Pedagogy of Adaptation makes a strong case for treating adaptation studies as a separate discipline What makes this book unique is its claim that adaptation is above all a creative process and not simply a slavish imitation or reproduction of an original This collection of essays focuses on numerous contexts to emphasize why adaptations matter to students of literature It is the first such volume devoted exclusively to teaching adaptations from a practical teacher centered angle Many of the essays show how adaptation as a discipline can be used to prompt reflection on cultural historical and political differences Written by specialists in a variety of fields ranging from film radio theater and even language studies the book adopts a pluralistic view of adaptation showing how its processes vary across different contexts and in different disciplines Defining new horizons for the teaching of adaptation studies these essays draw on such disparate sources as Frankenstein Moby Dick and South Park This volume not only provides a resource book of lesson plans but offers valuable pointers as to why teaching literature and film can help develop students skills and improve their literacy

The Humanities Pandemic Margaret Topping, 2023-07-25 This book explores how the Humanities can play an essential services role in addressing global challenges such as the Covid pandemic In arguing for their contribution alongside that of the Health Sciences it calls for a new critical engagement honest and self reflective from Humanities scholars with the question of how to overcome a fundamental challenge facing universities globally finding a common language and set of cultural assumptions between disciplines as the basis for communication The book looks at the nature of the challenges that can beset collaboration across disciplines and indeed across sectors notably between researchers and the general public and argues for a new Translational Humanities in both the sense of an applied Humanities and a Humanities that can translate itself across disciplines and sectors Crucially too it suggests that it is not narratives such as a pandemic novel or contagion film that successfully engage with contentious
