Contemporary Approaches In Literary Trauma Theory:

Contemporary Approaches in Literary Trauma Theory M. Balaev, 2014-12-02 This edited collection argues that trauma in literature must be read through a theoretical pluralism that allows for an understanding of trauma's variable representations that include yet move beyond the concept of trauma as pathological and unspeakable Theology in Avatar: The Last Airbender Anthony G. Cirilla, Michael Riggins, 2025-08-21 The beloved Uncle Iroh once told Prince Zuko It's time to start asking the big questions This statement is as true for us as viewers of Avatar The Last Airbender as it is for the banished prince This collection invites fans of one of the most popular animated shows in America to contemplate how the Avatar Universe prompts big questions about meaning Avatar The Last Airbender and its sequel series The Legend of Korra combine philosophical thoughts from both Eastern and Western perspectives and this collection of twelve essays helps readers to recognize and consider those influences more deeply from ideas as grand as the soul's relationship to the universe to the role tea can have in making a Zen master Contributors consider the show from perspectives such as Buddhism Taoism the Hero's Journey the theory of the elements and many more Critical Essays on the Writings of Lillian Smith Tanya Long Bennett, 2021-11-01 Contributions by Tanya Long Bennett David Brauer Cameron Williams Crawford Emily Pierce Cummins April Conley Kilinski Justin Mellette and Wendy Kurant Rollins As a white woman of means living in segregated Georgia in the first half of the twentieth century Lillian Smith 1897-1966 surprised readers with stories of mixed race love affairs mob attacks on outsiders and young female campers exploring their sexuality Critical Essays on the Writings of Lillian Smith tracks the evolution of Smith from a young girls camp director into a courageous artist who could examine controversial topics frankly and critically while preserving a lifelong connection to the north Georgia mountains and people She did not pull punches in her portrayals of the South and refused to obsess on an idealized past Smith took seriously the artist's role as she saw it to lead readers toward a better understanding of themselves and a more fulfilling existence Smith's perspective cut straight to the core of the neurotic behaviors she observed and participated in To draw readers into her exploration of those behaviors she created compelling stories using carefully chosen literary techniques in powerful ways With words as her medium she drew maps of her fictionalized southern places revealing literally and metaphorically society's disfunctions Through carefully crafted points of view she offers readers an intimate glimpse into her own childhood as well as the psychological traumas that all southerners experience and help to perpetuate Comprised of seven essays by contemporary Smith scholars this volume explores these fascinating aspects of Smith's writings in an attempt to fill in the picture of this charismatic figure whose work not only was influential in her time but also is profoundly relevant to ours Literature, the Gothic and the Reconstruction of History Daniel Renshaw, Neil Cocks, 2025-01-31 In the Gothic nothing stays buried for long Since its inception in the mid eighteenth century the Gothic imagination has been concerned with the pasts of the societies from which it emerged This collection featuring contributions from archivists historians and literary critics examines how horror fiction and the wider Gothic mode have engaged with the constructed conception of history From Victorian nightmares of Jurassic jungles to ghost stories on the contemporary stage the contributors adopt varied and innovative approaches to consider how the Gothic has created complicated and sometimes subverted historical narratives In doing so these works blur the distinctions between the historical record and creative endeavour undermine linear and sequential understandings of the progress of time and dissolve temporal boundaries The collection explores a variety of Gothic forms including drama poetry prose illustration film and folklore and it draws on classic texts such as Wuthering Heights and Dracula as well as less familiar works including Reynolds The Mysteries of London and Baldini's Mal aria Literature the Gothic and the Reconstruction of History will be invaluable to students and scholars interested in the confluences of literary and historical endeavour the creation and depiction of historical constructs in popular culture and Gothic horror in its myriad forms

Embodied Testimonies, Gendered Memories, and the Poetics of Trauma Maryam Ghodrati, Rachel R. Dale, 2024-07-16 Embodied Testimonies Gendered Memories and the Poetics of Trauma is a collection of academic essays that uses mainstream and postcolonial trauma theory in the analysis of literary and artistic representations of traumatic history This collection prioritizes historical and personal accounts from the perspectives of Iranian Arab Jewish and Black women to highlight the ways in which gender race and religion shape experiences of trauma By drawing attention to individual experiences of suffering both visible and invisible the authors reconsider the basis for collective and socio political engagement The book re examines established postcolonial trauma theory which can occasionally overemphasize the collectivity of traumatic experience and subsume individual stories under ideological nationalism Each chapter in this collection explores methods of balancing the pain of the individual and the community through analyses of art literature and film Together these chapters demonstrate the importance of embracing a dynamic and diverse approach to the representation of trauma that makes marginalized survivors visible while also recognizing the complexities of gendered and racialized experiences of trauma

Women Writing Trauma in Literature Laura Alexander, 2022-10-17 This collection features studies on trauma literary theory and psychoanalysis in women's writing It examines the ways in which literature helps to heal the wounded self and it particularly concentrates attention on the way women explain the traumatic experiences of war violence or displacement Covering a global range of women writers this book focuses on the psychoanalytic role of literature in helping recover the voices buried by intense pain and suffering and to help those voices be heard Literature brings the unconscious into being and focus reconfiguring life through narration These essays look at the relationship between traumatic experience and literary form

Narratives of Trauma in South Asian Literature Goutam Karmakar, Zeenat Khan, 2022-12-30 This volume addresses cultural and literary narratives of trauma in South Asian literature Presenting a novel cross cultural perspective on trauma theory the essays within this volume study the divergent cultural responses to trauma and violence in various parts of South Asia including Sri Lanka Bangladesh Nepal and Afghanistan which have received little attention in literary writings on trauma in their specific circumstances Through comprehensive sociocultural understanding of the region this book creates an approachable space where trauma engages with themes like racial identity ethnicity nationality religious dogma and cultural environment With case studies from Kashmir the 1971 liberation war of Bangladesh and armed conflict in Nepal and Afghanistan the volume will be of interest to scholars students and researchers of literature history politics conflict studies and South Asian studies Suffering in Anglophone Literatures Charles I. Armstrong, Martina Domines, 2024-10-15 This book engages with postclassical Trauma Studies in order to widen the scope of discussion about trauma to concepts such as toleration mourning nostalgia vulnerability and existential Angst The authors question literature's manifold relationship to trauma is undertaken in a conscientious dialogue with ethics and politics English Studies in the 21st Century Zekiye Antakyalıoğlu, Kyriaki Asiatidou, Ela İpek Gündüz, Enes Kavak, Gamze Almacıoğlu, 2020-03-06 English Studies in the 21st Century presents the results of recent academic research concerning a wide spectrum of subjects including politics psychology religion philosophy history culture aesthetics and education related to literary cultural and language studies Specifically this collection includes scholarly reflections interpretations criticisms and experiments that both strengthen and challenge dominant perspectives on the English literary tradition and contribute to a multifaceted discussion of contemporary drama and theater contemporary theory and fiction Neo Victorianism the Anthropocene posthumanism and interdisciplinary studies in English including linguistics and ELT The book will be an ideal reference for both academics and students Trauma and Literature J. Roger Kurtz, 2018-03-15 As a concept trauma has attracted a great deal of interest in literary studies A key term in psychoanalytic approaches to literary study trauma theory represents a critical approach that enables new modes of reading and of listening It is a leading concept of our time applicable to individuals cultures and nations This book traces how trauma theory has come to constitute a discrete but influential approach within literary criticism in recent decades It offers an overview of the genesis and growth of literary trauma theory recording the evolution of the concept of trauma in relation to literary studies In twenty one essays covering the origins development and applications of trauma in literary studies Trauma and Literature addresses the relevance and impact this concept has in the field Women's Space Melanie A. Marotta, Donald E. Palumbo, C.W. Sullivan III, 2020-01-17 From the Star Wars expanded universe to Westworld the science fiction western has captivated audiences for more than fifty years These twelve new essays concentrate on the female characters in the contemporary science fiction western addressing themes of power agency intersectionality and the body Discussing popular works such as Fringe Guardians of the Galaxy and Mass Effect the essayists shed new light on the gender dynamics of these beloved franchises emphasizing inclusion and diversity with their critical perspectives The Nature of Trauma in American Novels Michelle Balaev, 2012-06-11 This book examines literary trauma theory from its foundations to its implementations and new possibilities A n analysis that reconsiders the meaning and value of traumatic experience by demonstrating the diversity of its forms in contemporary

American novels in an effort to deepen the discussion of trauma beyond that of the disease driven paradigm in literary criticism today The author's model views trauma and the process of remembering within a framework that emphasizes the multiplicity of responses to an extreme experience and the importance of contextual factors in determining the significance of the event In order to demonstrate this new approach she focuses her discussion on late modern canonical and emergent American novels that deal with trauma In analyzing the narrative methods authors employ to portray suffering she found two major patterns the use of landscape imagery to convey the effects of trauma and remembering and the use of place as a site that shapes the protagonist's experience and perception of the world

Introduction The Future of Trauma Theory Gert Buelens, Samuel Durrant, Robert Eaglestone, 2013-10-30 This collection analyses the future of trauma theory a major theoretical discourse in contemporary criticism and theory The chapters advance the current state of the field by exploring new areas asking new questions and making new connections Part one History and Culture begins by developing trauma theory in its more familiar post deconstructive mode and explores how these insights might still be productive It goes on via a critique of existing positions to relocate trauma theory in a postcolonial and globalized world theoretically aesthetically and materially and focuses on non Western accounts and understandings of trauma memory and suffering Part two Politics and Subjectivity turns explicitly to politics and subjectivity focussing on the state and the various forms of subjection to which it gives rise and on human rights biopolitics and community Each chapter in different ways advocates a movement beyond the sort of texts and concepts that are the usual focus for trauma criticism and moves this dynamic network of ideas forward With contributions from an international selection of leading critics and thinkers from the US and Europe this volume will be a key critical intervention in one of the most important areas in contemporary literary criticism and theory

Slavery's Visual and Literary Legacy Rebecca Sue Wood, 2004 Trauma in Contemporary Literature Marita Nadal, Mónica Calvo, 2014-03-26 Trauma in Contemporary Literature analyzes contemporary narrative texts in English in the light of trauma theory including essays by scholars of different countries who approach trauma from a variety of perspectives The book analyzes and applies the most relevant concepts and themes discussed in trauma theory such as the relationship between individual and collective trauma historical trauma absence vs loss the roles of perpetrator and victim dissociation nachtraglichkeit transgenerational trauma the process of acting out and working through introjection and incorporation mourning and melancholia the phantom and the crypt postmemory and multidirectional memory shame and the affects and the power of resilience to overcome trauma Significantly the essays not only focus on the phenomenon of trauma and its diverse manifestations but above all consider the elements that challenge the aporias of trauma the traps of stasis and repetition in order to reach beyond the confines of the traumatic condition and explore the possibilities of survival healing and recovery

Literary Canons and Religious Identity International Society for Religion, Literature, and Culture. Meeting, 2004 The central focus of this volume is the turn to religion in modern and postmodern literature with a special emphasis on the interaction and transformation of both literary and religious canons in contemporary culture The essays represent different approaches to the literary disclosure of the religious in 20th century literature intersecting with crucial issues in contemporary literary and cultural criticism issues such as gender postcolonialism multiculturalism ethics literature and hermeneutics and trauma theory The contributors combine a specific theoretical methodological stance with a case study in which the literary articulation of a post modern ethical religious receptivity for the Other is demonstrated They explicitly pay attention to the narrative poetical and rhetorical structures and strategies of the texts that is to the tension between representation and performativity Trauma Theory As an Approach to Analyzing Literary Texts Ted

Morrissey, 2021-02-15 Dr Ted Morrissey investigates in this book the hypothesis that cultural trauma affects a society's literary production and artistic production as a whole that has resulted in a narrative voice we have come to call postmodern since the midway point of the twentieth century with this book examining the Anglo Saxon Period of English history especially the poem Beowulf Texts Peter Childs, 2006 Texts is a new kind of book which shows students how to use literary theory to approach a wide range of literary cultural and media texts of the kind studied on today's courses
