Contemporary Architecture United Kingdom:

World's Contemporary Architecture: United Kingdom Yuichi Ino, Shinji Koike, 1953 Contemporary Architecture United Kingdom Duncan McCorquodale, 2014-10-13 Contemporary Architecture United Kingdom is the first title in Artifice books on architecture's new Contemporary Architecture series. The series focuses on specific territories worldwide and offers engaging, challenging, and inspiring surveys of contemporary architecture in each region. In keeping with Black Dog Publishing's ART WORLD series thus far comprising books on Contemporary Art in the Middle East, Latin America, the United Kingdom, North America, and Eastern Europe, each book in the Contemporary Architecture series will include key re-published texts by historians, critics, and practitioners as well as new specially commissioned contextualising essays concerning the architecture comprising each title in the series. Contemporary Architecture United Kingdom features the work of more than 50 architects from the United Kingdom, including Nord Feilden Clegg Bradley Studios, Richard Murphy Architects, Haworth Tompkins, Eric Parry Architects, and Sarah Wigglesworth Architects. Every building type, from large public institutions to private houses, is covered, along with a wide range of design approaches relating to preoccupations as diverse as materials, processes, climate, and the environment, economics, and history and theory. Together, the series will enable cross-cultural comparisons and establish common and divergent concerns given each region in contrast to the emerging phenomena of globalisation and the focus on singular, iconic architecture works. 280 colour and b/w illustrations. World's Contemporary Architecture Yuichi Ino, Shinji Koike, 1955 The cultural & heritage guide for The United Kingdom, 2025-09-24 UK Philip Jodidio, 2006-01-01 Contemporary architecture by country TASCHEN's new architecture series brings a unique perspective to world architecture, highlighting architectural trends by country. Each book features 15 to 20 architects from the firmly established to the up and coming, with the focus on how they have contributed to very recent architecture in the chosen nation. Entries include contact information and short biographies, in addition to copiously illustrated descriptions of the architects or firms' most significant recent projects. Crossing the globe from country to country, this new series celebrates the richly hued architectural personality of each nation featured. Architects featured: Matali Crasset, Odile Decq, Jean-Marie Duthilleul, Edouard François, Manuelle Gautrand, Jakob MacFarlane, Lacaton Vassal, Jean Nouvel, Marin Trottin, Phiphriques, Dominique Perrault, Christian de Portzamparc, Rudy Ricciotti, Valode Pistre, Jean-Paul Viguier, Jean-Michel Wilmotte. Series author Philip Jodidio studied art history and economics at Harvard University and was Editor in Chief of the leading French art journal Connaissance des Arts for over two decades. He has published numerous articles and books, including TASCHEN's Architecture Now series, Building a New Millennium, and monographs on Norman Foster, Richard Meier, Ivarø Siza, Tadao Ando, and Renzo Piano. Modern Architecture in England Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.), Henry-Russell Hitchcock, 1969 The Politics of Architecture Anthony Jackson, 1970-12-15 The history of British architecture since 1930 has been one of frequently heated controversy between the old idiom and the new, and between various social and technological viewpoints The battle is by no means over indeed it is spreading to wider issues and outside what was previously a largely professional sphere A book like this one which spells out the issues and describes how they arose is therefore of interest not only to architects and students of architecture but to the growing general public concerned about the man made environment Professor Jackson looks at the buildings of the period as the products of peculiar sets of circumstances as works of art and in terms of what their designers were trying to achieve And since there is much worth studying in the critical zone that separates architectural claims and hopes from social and aesthetic reality this book offers both essential background material and a fascinating narrative that will in itself be a subject of controversy The British Architect ,1913 Case Studies in Architecture and Landscape Jan Woudstra,Xiang Ren,2025-09-11 The architect historian and critic Peter Blundell Jones 1949 2016 considered architecture as an expansive field within the arts and humanities and social sciences that included landscape and urban studies His focus within this built environment was firmly on people and place which to him meant developing a comprehension of the broad human material and social engagements with specific localities His favourite way to explore this human and environmental focus was through case studies of individual places leading to a modus operandi to tackle the study of any place in a generous rigorous and comprehensive manner that used the skills of related professions of the sciences as well as of psychology and anthropology Being able to adopt such interdisciplinarity determined the real value of his output which was further enriched through the thick interpretation of placemaking in non Western cultures This book celebrating the East West Studies in Architecture and Landscape at the University of Sheffield co founded by Peter Blundell Jones in 1995 presents 16 distinctive case studies in order to underline the relevance of his case study methodology and global legacy It is intended to have relevance for a range of disciplines including the design ones of architecture landscape and urban design and planning as well as anthropology history geography and cultural studies Modern Architecture in England Henry-Russell Hitchcock,Catherine K..
