The Secret File of Joseph Stalin Roman Brackman, 2004-11-23 This account of Stalin's life begins with his early years the family breakup caused by the suspicion that the boy was the result of an adulterous affair the abuse by his father and the growth of the traumatized boy into criminal spy and finally one of the 20th century's political monsters Russian Children's Literature and Culture Marina Balina, Larissa Rudova, 2013-02-01 Soviet literature in general and Soviet children's literature in particular have often been labeled by Western and post Soviet Russian scholars and critics as propaganda Below the surface however Soviet children's literature and culture allowed its creators greater experimental and creative freedom than did the socialist realist culture for adults This volume explores the importance of children's culture from literature to comics to theater to film in the formation of Soviet social identity and in connection with broader Russian culture history and society

Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism Keru Cai, 2025-04-28 Poverty in Modern Chinese Realism shows that early twentieth century Chinese writers drew upon Russian texts about the socially downtrodden to describe poverty in a bid to enrich Chinese culture by creating a syncretic new realism Modern Chinese realist writers turned to the topic of material poverty peasants suffering from famine exploited urban laborers homeless orphans to convey their sense of textual poverty and national backwardness The combination of a radically new subject matter and experimentation with diverse literary resources indigenous and foreign generated major innovations in narrative technique Depicting poverty allowed writers to revolutionize the nascent forms of modern Chinese narrative innovating strategies of representing the nation the social other time and space while problematizing their deployment of squalor for aesthetic purposes This book examines why Russian literature itself long preoccupied with a problem of belatedness vis vis Western Europe occupied a privileged place for Chinese intellectuals of this era Comparing

Chinese fiction about poverty to Russian intertexts by Gogol Andreev Chekhov Turgenev and others the book shows how Chinese writers drew and innovated upon themes such as madness or human animality and formal elements such as metonymy Keru Cai's multi-scalar approach emphasizing close textual analysis situates modern Chinese realism in the trans-Eurasian axis of world literature The Complete Index to Literary Sources in Film Alan Goble, 2011-09-08 No detailed
