Development Studies 2000 2013 Question Papers:

Proceedings of the XIV INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM SYMORG 2014 Aleksandar Marković, Slađana Barjaktarović Rakočević, 2014-06-05 Bangladesh Ali Riaz, 2016-06-08 Bangladesh is a country of paradoxes The eighth most populous country of the world it has attracted considerable attention from the international media and western policy makers in recent years often for the wrong reasons corruption natural disasters caused by its precarious geographical location and volatile political situations with several military coups following its independence from Pakistan in 1971 Institutional corruption growing religious intolerance and Islamist militancy have reflected the weakness of the state and undermined its capacity Yet the country has demonstrated significant economic potential and has achieved successes in areas such as female education population control and reductions in child mortality Ali Riaz here examines the political processes which engendered these paradoxical tendencies taking into account the problems of democratization and the effects this has had and will continue to have in the wider South Asian region This comprehensive and unique overview of political and historical developments in Bangladesh since 1971 will provide essential reading for observers of Bangladesh and South Asia Ethical Trade, Gender and Sustainable Livelihoods Kiah Smith, 2014-03-21 Fair and ethical trade is often criticized for being highly gendered and for institutionalizing the ethical values of consumers the priorities of NGOs and governments and most of all food retailers But little is known about how women smallholder farmers experience diverse ethical standards or whether and how standards reflect their values local cultural and environmental contexts or priorities for achieving sustainable livelihoods Linking gender smallholder livelihoods and global ethical trade regulations this book reveals that multiple understandings of social justice environmental sustainability and well being or ethicality exist in parallel to those institutionalized in ethical trade schemes Through an in depth case study of smallholder subsistence and French bean farming in Kenya the book grounds the analysis of livelihoods gender and ethical trade in women smallholders perspectives links the macro level of markets with the micro level of livelihoods and engenders relations of power structure and agency in food networks It brings together disparate bodies of theory to illustrate the knowledge strategies and values of women smallholder farmers that are often beyond the scope of ethical trade regulations It also provides a challenging new vision for doing food systems research Climate Change 2014 - Impacts, Adaptation and Vulnerability: Global and Sectoral Aspects Christopher B. Field, Vicente R. Barros, 2014-12-29 This latest Fifth Assessment Report of the Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change IPCC will again form the standard reference for all those concerned with climate change and its consequences including students researchers and policy makers in environmental science meteorology climatology biology ecology atmospheric chemistry and environmental policy Transnational Corporations and Local Innovation José Eduardo Cassiolato, Graziela Zucoloto, Dinesh Abrol, Liu Xielin, 2014 Analyzes the relationship between the state and the development of the national system of innovation Combining original data and expert analysis shares experiences and knowledge that may impact how we understand the theory of innovation systems and implement policies and strategies for their economic development

Power in Contemporary Zimbabwe Erasmus Masitera, Fortune Sibanda, 2018-04-20 In recent years the Zimbabwe crisis rendered the country and its citizens to be a typical case of failed states the world over Zimbabwean society was and is still confronted with different challenges which include political economic and social problems Attempts to overcome these challenges have thrown light on the power that rests within individuals and or groups to change and even revolutionize their localities communities states and ultimately the world at large Through experience individuals and groups have promoted ideas that have aided in changing mentalities attitudes and behaviors in societies at different levels This book brings together contributors from various academic disciplines to reflect on and theorize the contours of power including the intrinsic and or extrinsic models of power which pertain to individuals communities and or groups in order to transform society Reflections are on various groups such as political movements environmental movements religious groups advocacy groups gender groups to mention but a few as they struggle against marginalization discrimination exploitation and other forms of oppression showing their agency or compliance

Rural Wage Employment in Developing Countries Carlos Oya, Nicola Pontara, 2015-05-22 There is a striking scarcity of work conducted on rural labour markets in the developing world particularly in Africa This book aims to fill this gap by bringing together a group of contributors who boast substantial field experience researching rural wage employment in various developing countries It provides critical perspectives on mainstream approaches to rural agrarian development and analysis of agrarian change and rural transformations from a long term perspective This book challenges the notion that rural areas in low and middle income countries are dominated by self employment It purports that this conventional view is largely due to the application of conceptual frameworks and statistical conventions that are ill equipped to capture labour market participation The contributions in this book offer a variety of methodological lessons for the study of rural labour markets focusing in particular on the use of mixed methods in micro level field research and more emphasis on capturing occupation multiplicity The emphasis on context history and specific configurations of power relations affecting rural labour market outcomes are key and reoccurring features of this book This analysis will help readers think about policy options to improve the quantity and quality of rural wage employment their impact on the poorest rural people and their political feasibility in each context

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro-Ecology Yıldız Atasoy, 2017-05-18 This book explores the shifting relations of food provisioning in Turkey from a comparative global political economy perspective It offers in depth ethnographic analysis interviews and historical insights into the ambiguities and diversities that simultaneously affect the changing conditions of food and agriculture in Turkey Specific issues examined include the commodification of land food and labour the expansion and deepening of industrial standardization the expansion of a supermarket model and concomitant changes in as well as the simultaneous co existence of traditional methods of production and marketing Contrasting observations are drawn from diverse locales to provide examples of convergence divergence and cohabitation in relation to transnationally advocated industrial models

Commodification of Global Agrifood Systems and Agro Ecology employs a form of comparative perspective that allows the particular processes of restructuring of agrifood relations in Turkey to be simultaneously distinguished from yet related to changes taking place in global power dynamics

Y ld z Atasoy explores agrifood transformation in Turkey with a unique approach that considers a plurality of intertwined normative influences ontological beliefs cultural religious narratives political struggles and critical interpretive positions Based on original research the book treats changes in food provisioning as an analytical thread capable of uncovering how the normative acceptability of capitalized agriculture and techno scientific innovation is entangled with processes of class formation growing inter capitalist competition and Islamic politics Such processes in turn frame income wealth generation landscape management agro ecological dynamics and labour practices as well as the taste and smell of place

Urbanization and Development ,2016 The analysis of urban development of the past twenty years presented in this maiden edition of the World Cities Report shows with compelling evidence that there are new forms of collaboration and cooperation planning governance finance and learning that can sustain positive change The Report unequivocally demonstrates that the current urbanization model is unsustainable in many respects It conveys a clear message that the pattern of urbanization needs to change in order to better respond to the challenges of our time to address issues such as inequality climate change informality insecurity and the unsustainable forms of urban expansion

World Survey on the Role of Women in Development United Nations Publications,2015-06-30 Ensuring women s economic empowerment and access to and control over resources requires an integrated approach to growth and development focused on gender responsive employment promotion and informed by the interdependency between economic and social development Social objectives need to be incorporated into economic policies Economic growth strategies should give attention to the real economy and focus on creating a gender sensitive macroeconomic environment full employment and decent work access to land property and other productive resources as well as financial services and full coverage of social protection measures The Survey outlines a number of concrete recommendations in these critical areas which if adopted will facilitate women s equitable access to and control over economic and financial resources

Safeguarding Human Progress Khalid Malik,2014 This publication notes that the most effective policies for supporting human development and reducing vulnerabilities are those that incorporate principles of universalism by placing people at the centre of policy Responding to life cycle and structural vulnerabilities through social investments and policy interventions deliver long term benefits by reducing vulnerabilities at critical life phases and mitigating structural disadvantage faced by discriminated groups in society Yet the emerging challenges and risks posed by vulnerability given the backdrop of globalisation require a concerted approach and collective action that will measure up to the scale of these shared challenges In building this argument this companion volume to the 2014 Human Development Report draws on research commissioned from eminent economists
