As part of his Eagle Scout Rank Application, an Eagle candidate must complete a Life-Goals Statement, detailed in the box on the application after requirement No. 6. This document also is known as the “Statement of Ambitions and Life Purpose, and Leadership Positions and Responsibilities.”

This statement must be attached to the Eagle Scout Rank Application. It will be read by the members of your Eagle Scout Board of Review and can be read by members of your local BSA council and the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America (BSA National). The content of the statement is assessed as part of the overall review of your candidacy for the Eagle Scout rank. The statement should be typed, not hand-written.

The Life-Goals Statement should detail your ambitions, what you want to accomplish in life, leadership positions you have held outside of Scouting, significant accomplishments you achieved and awards you earned in those positions, and duration of service in those positions. Also identify how your Scouting experiences can help you accomplish goals you want to achieve in the future.
