

POWERFUL CLOSING PRAYER FOR FELLOWSHIP

“Almighty Father,

I am grateful for the time that we have had together in Your presence, believing that whatever we've discussed shall be kept in practice.

Please enable us to share this love and unity with everyone we meet this week and illustrate Your goodness to all, including the non-believers. Shine Your light upon us until we meet again in Jesus' mighty name, I pray.

Amen”

Shorney, G. Herbert Shorney, 1923      The People's Book of Worship John Wallace Suter, Charles Morris Addison, 1919      Together for a Season: All-age seasonal resources for Lent, Holy Week and Easter Peter Craig-Wild, Diane Craven, Peter Moger, 2007 A practical companion through the Church's year for all those planning and leading all age worship It offers an array of creative material designed to bring to life the seasonal liturgy of Lent Holy Week and Easter including Pentecost      Meditative Prayer Richard Peace, 2015-06-22 Our prayers should go as deep as our souls Spiritual disciplines are simply ways to open ourselves to God They help us become aware of the many ways God speaks to us and provide us with ways to respond to God This book explores and explains how the historical disciplines and perspectives of the Christian faith can deepen both our walk with God and our community with others In today's society we are often handicapped in our spiritual growth by too narrow a horizon when it comes to spiritual practices Each generation suffers a kind of collective amnesia forgetting the practices and perspectives that nourished countless followers of Christ in centuries past Rediscovering these skills is one way to respond to our culture's and our own deep spiritual hunger While it is seemingly preposterous for us to suppose we can interact with the God of this universe Scripture repeatedly invites us to do that very thing Prayer is not a minor idea tucked into the cracks of the text it is central normative and expected Why is it then that our prayers are so often dry and difficult In Meditative Prayer you will discover those ways of prayer that make use of your mind and imagination that address your needs as well as strengthen your spirit By drawing from a number of different sources from Scripture from wise men and women who have gone before and from one another this study guide will enable your soul to drink deeply from the inexhaustible well of prayer Though you can use this guide for a personal journey of prayer it is ideally suited for exploration with a small group of like minded friends      International Journal of Religious Education, 1926      The Churchman, 1906      Christian Hymns for the Use of Young People's Societies, Sunday Schools and Church Services Evangelical Synod of North America, 1908      The Union Prayer Book, 1872      Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, Louis Herbert Gray, 1928      How we got our Prayer-book Thomas Wortley Drury (bp. of Sodor and Man.), 1901      How We Got Our Prayer-book Thomas Wortley Drury, 1901      The Congregationalist and Christian World, 1902      Encyclopaedia of Religion and Ethics: Picts-Sacraments James Hastings, John Alexander Selbie, 1919      The Evangelist, 1896      A Sense of Belonging Hilton Scott, 2022-03-08 This book takes an interdisciplinary approach to a societal challenge that both affects and is affected by the church in multi racial multi cultural and otherwise pluralistic communities In certain contexts around the world there are pertinent examples of the struggles that come with learning to live together in the midst of diversity and plurality such as the post apartheid Republic of South Africa However these more often than not racial and cultural struggles

could be eased by developing worship services that are more relevant and inclusive This in turn should instil a sense of belief and a way of inclusive thinking culminating in more inclusive living The approach developed in this book stems from the aphorism lex orandi lex credendi lex con vivendi or as we pray so we believe so we live together Ha-Yehudim U-mikyeh
