George Washington was the first President of the United States. He was also the commander in chief of all American forces during the American Revolutionary War. For his central role in the beginning of the United States, he is often called the father of his country. His mother was Mary Ball and his father was Augustine Washington. They owned a plantation with slaves in Virginia. George studied at local schools. George's father died when he was eleven. Then his brother Lawrence helped train him. There is a story that Washington cut down his father's cherry tree. When asked, he did not lie and said that he did cut down the tree. The story means he was very honest. We do not know if the story really happened.
