

CLUBHOUSE JR. WRITER'S GUIDELINES

Focus on the Family Clubhouse Jr. is a 24-page magazine designed to inspire, entertain and teach Christian values to children ages 4 to 8. With a circulation of approximately 80,000, the magazine reaches young readers and their parents all over the world.

FICTION

Fresh, inviting, creative fiction is the foundation of our magazine. The stories we publish explore a worthy theme without an obvious "moral." The characters should be well-developed, the story line fast-moving and interesting, and the prose descriptive and carefully constructed. Our stories are not always explicitly Christian, but they should be built upon a foundation of Christian beliefs and family values. Humor and charm are key elements in a strong story.

Length:	For beginning readers	250-750 words
	For parents to read aloud	700-1000 words

NONFICTION

Nonfiction articles should be concisely written in short caption-style format. Science and nature articles should be handled from a unique perspective, giving information that a child wouldn't find in a nature magazine. Articles about real children or adults with interesting experiences are also accepted. We love hearing about modern-day and historical heroes of the faith. The most successful articles are those that teach the audience in an amusing way and don't go over their heads with information.

Length: No longer than 600 words.

BIBLE STORIES

Bible stories should be imaginative yet accurate retellings of Scripture. We generally favor the lesser-known stories from the Bible. The best styles are short captions, easy reader or comic-strip versions. A nonfiction sidebar highlighting accurate facts about the subject is a plus.

Length: No longer than 800 words
