An illustration of two women standing on a green lawn in front of a large, multi-story brick university building. The woman on the left has long, wavy blonde hair and is wearing a white long-sleeved button-down shirt tucked into a dark plaid skirt, with her hands on her hips. The woman on the right has long, wavy brown hair and is wearing a yellow sleeveless vest over a dark top and a light-colored skirt. The background features a large brick building with many windows and a clock tower on the left. The sky is blue.

Parasocial Romantic Relationships Riva Tukachinsky Forster, 2021-05-05 Parasocial Romantic Relationships Falling in Love with Media Figures explores how why and to what effect individuals develop romantic feelings toward people they know from the media These imaginary one sided relationships dubbed parasocial romantic relationships are both profound and pervasive Riva Tukachinsky Forster argues These relationships can take many forms including adolescents who develop celebrity crushes on popular music artist anime enthusiasts who marry their favorite characters and fanfiction authors who insert themselves into narratives as romantic interests of the protagonist Through analysis of surveys in depth interviews and historical examples this book advances our understanding of parasocial romantic relationships on both a sociocultural and a psychological level The data and theories analyzed offer insights into how individuals can become romantically engaged with people they do not actually know some of whom may not even exist in reality Ultimately Tukachinsky Forster argues that although these relationships exist only in the mind of consumers they serve important psychological functions across different stages of life and can lead to significant consequences for individuals nonmediated relationships Scholars of media studies communication psychology and sociology will find this book particularly useful Cheryl Story Part 2 Hudson Dyer, 2025-06-23 Twenty five year old Cheryl Windsor Douglas is a successful businesswoman of great beauty intellect grace and pride but she does have a flaw Due to an abusive incident that happened to her in her senior year of high school an evil spirit her Other invaded her psyche and now controls her sexual needs The one exception is when she is intimate with her husband the spirit disappears Cheryl although loyal and loving to her husband has fantasies dreams of being sexually dominated by other men After she finally confides with her husband they both give in to temptation She has sexual experiences with other men while her husband watches and participates Read Cheryl Story Part 2 a fiery tale of a sexually driven woman being subjugated by anonymous men at her husband s commands About the Author Hudson Dyer worked in both government and real estate for many years During this time he observed women being used sexually by powerful and wealthy men This subject is particularly relevant in these days of the Me Too movement Dyer splits his time between California and Nevada Saga #26 Brian K. Vaughan, 2015-03-04 Gwendolyn s quest takes an interesting turn Holy Anime! Patrick Drazen, 2017-07-31 Christianity has been in Japan for five centuries but embraced by less than one percent of the population It s a complicated relationship given the sudden appearance in Japan of Renaissance Catholicism which was utterly unlike the historic faiths of Shinto and Buddhism Japan had to invent a word for religion since Japan did not share the west s reliance on faith in a personal God Japan s views of this outsider religion resemble America s view of the outsider Islamic faith Understanding this through the book Orientalism by Edward Said Patrick Drazen samples depictions of Christianity in the popular Japanese media of comics and cartoons The book begins with the work of postwar comics master Tezuka Osamu with results that range from the comic to the revisionist to the blasphemous and obscene Violent

Cartographies Michael J. Shapiro, 1997 An innovative critique of the way historians and political scientists study war How can we resist a nation state vision of the globe What is needed to unmap the familiar world In Violent Cartographies Michael J. Shapiro considers these questions exploring the significance of war in contemporary society and its connections to the geographical imaginary Employing an ethnographic perspective Shapiro uses whiplash reversals and bizarre juxtapositions to jolt readers out of conventional thinking about international relations and security studies Considering the ideas of thinkers ranging from von Clausewitz to Virilio from Derrida to DeLillo Shapiro distances readers from familiar political and strategic accounts of war and its causes Shapiro uses literary and film analyses to elucidate his themes For example he considers such cultural artifacts as U S Marine recruiting television commercials American war movies and General Schwarzkopf's autobiography elaborating how a certain image of American masculinity is played out in the military imaginary and in the media Other topics are Melville's The Confidence Man Bunuel's film That Obscure Object of Desire and a comparison of the U S invasion of Grenada to an Aztec flower war Throughout Shapiro draws attention to the violence of the colonial encounters through which many modern nation states were formed and ultimately suggests possible directions for an ethics of minimal violence in the encounter with others The overall effect is of a complex cumulative and layered analysis of the historical and moral conditions of the current use of violence in the conduct of international relations A fascinating and challenging work Violent Cartographies will interest anyone concerned with the connections between war and culture
