The Art of Burglarizing Your Home Capt. Guy Stultz, 2013-02-19 Born in Brockton Massachusetts in the mid 30's Quit school in the 10th grade and joined the Air Force After being released under honorable conditions he bummed around for several years before deciding to take up flying under the G-1 Bill He wanted to be an airline pilot In 1959 still a student pilot he was making a flying trip of several hundred miles which was a requirement for his commercial license During that trip he got lost above an overcast sky An American Airline pilot heard his distress call while in route to Buffalo N.Y. with 45 passengers aboard The pilot turned his DC-6B aircraft around and went looking for the student He found him and led him to safety The next day both pilots found themselves in the headlines of newspapers around the world Stultz was fascinated with the news media taking pictures of him and American Airline pilot Capt Walter P Moran Stultz thought to himself that news photographers see and record history in the making A few weeks later Mr Stultz went out and bought a camera On his way home from the store he came across an auto accident where a woman was killed He got out and photographed the scene and sold the pictures to a local newspaper From that day on to today Mr Stultz does not go anywhere without his camera He eventually worked his way up doing legal photography for attorneys and insurance companies In 1967 Stultz took his wife and children and moved to Westminster California He became the official city photographer and did minor work for several police departments and the California Highway Patrol According to one newspaper they stated that Stultz was the most well known freelance photographer in southern California A CHP Officer nicknamed him Abel Guy The name stuck From then on most law enforcement agencies called him Abel Guy In 1977 he and his family moved to the mid west where he went to work for a security company In the course of business Stultz became very interested in burglaries He photographed them and studied them and sort of became an unofficial expert on them Many neighborhood associations invited him to speak at their meetings which he did free of charge His main subject was burglaries followed by what a security officer can and cannot do in a neighborhood The information in this book The Art of Burglarizing Your Home plus other stuff is a win win situation for any human being that lives in a house or an apartment Mr Stultz will soon be retiring and will be writing other books during his retired years to come
