exemplify Flash's role in shaping the experience and expectations of web multimedia. Topics include Flash as a platform for developing animation and the Flashimation aesthetic; its capacities for scripting and interactive design; games and genres enabled by the reconstruction of the browser as a games portal; forms and genres of media art that use Flash; and Flash's stance on openness and standards, including its platform-defining battle over the ability to participate in Apple's own proprietary platforms. Flash's exit from the mobile environment in 2011 led some to declare that Flash was dead. But as Salter and Murray show, not only does Flash live, but its role as a definitive cross-platform tool continues to influence web experience.
