Dot Dot Dot 11 Stuart Bailey, Peter Bilak, 2006-03 The journal whose very name promises more to come delivers two issues this season There aren't too many places to find intelligent passionate and witty writing about the past present and future of visual culture Dot Dot Dot the brilliant journal edited by Stuart Bailey and Peter Bilak is one of the few we've found and we're happy to be able to present it in our catalog Box Office, 1961 Las Vegas Dreams, SACAFIESTA Jack Espinosa, 2015-08-30 In Sacafiesta Jack Espinosa recounts his experiences as a comedian and entertainer as a child in Ybor City as a young man touring clubs in post War United States and pre Castro Cuba and later as a family man whose infectious humor helps him transition from janitor to high school social studies teacher overnight Like his first memoir Cuban Bread Crumbs Espinosa weaves wry and witty tales of growing up as son of Spanish immigrants with keen observations about the rich cultural history of his beloved Tampa "Have You Seen . . . ?" David Thomson, 2008-10-14 In 1975 David Thomson published his Biographical Dictionary of Film and few film books have enjoyed better press or such steady sales Now thirty three years later we have the companion volume a second book of more than 1 000 pages in one voice that of our most provocative contemporary film critic and historian Juxtaposing the fanciful and the fabulous the old favorites and the forgotten this sweeping collection presents the films that Thomson offers in response to the question he gets asked most often What should I see This new book is a generous history of film and an enticing critical appraisal written with as much humor and passion as historical knowledge Not content to choose his own top films though they are here Thomson has created a list that will surprise and delight you and send you to your best movie rental service But he also probes the question after one hundred years of film which ones are the best and why Have You Seen suggests a true canon of cinema and one that's almost completely accessible now thanks to DVDs This book is a must for anyone who loves the silver screen the perfect confection to dip into at any point for a taste of controversy little known facts and ideas about what to see This is a volume you'll want to return to again and again like a dear but argumentative friend in the dark at the movies In the Face of Adversity Thomas Nolden, 2023-02-20 In the Face of Adversity explores the dynamics of translating texts that articulate particular notions of adverse circumstances The chapters illustrate how literary records of often painful experiences and dissenting voices are at risk of being stripped of their authenticity when not carefully handled by the translator how cultural moments in which the translation of a text that would have otherwise fallen into oblivion instead gave rise to a translator who enabled its preservation while ultimately coming into their own as an author as a result and how the difficulties the translator faces in intercultural or transnational constellations in which prejudice plays a role endangers projects meant to facilitate mutual understanding The authors address translation as a project of making available and preserving a corpus of texts that would otherwise be in danger of becoming censored misperceived or ignored They look at translation and adaptation as a project of curating textual models of personal communal or collective perseverance and they offer insights into the dynamics of cultural inclusion and exclusion through a series of theoretical frameworks as well as through a set of concrete case studies drawn from different cultural and historical contexts The collection also explores some of the venues that artists have pursued by transferring artistic expressions from one medium into another in order to preserve and disseminate important experiences in different cultural settings media and arts Official Steamship Guide International ,1999 Film Review ,2005 Ford's International Cruise Guide ,1989 Plunkett's Entertainment and Media Industry Almanac 2008 Jack W.
