China S Policies 2014:

China and US Foreign Investment Laws and Practices Liu Ziyu, 2024-11-08 The book is a comparative study of the national security review of foreign investment laws in China and the US The author establishes a theoretical framework to explain the dominant role of ideas on national security and foreign investment rooted in China and the US as well as the oriented role of China US investment interaction She concludes that it is difficult for China and the US to reach a consensus on national security review due to their different internal ideas on national security and foreign investment By comparing the similarities and differences in the development of national security review in China and the US she also proposes a feasible approach to facilitate bilateral investment practices The book will attract scholars of international economic law investment law and Sino US relations

The End of China's Non-Intervention Policy in Africa Obert Hodzi, 2018-10-22 This book gives a compelling analysis and explanation of shifts in China's non intervention policy in Africa Systematically connecting the neoclassical realist theoretical logic with an empirical analysis of China's intervention in African civil wars the volume highlights a methodical interlink between theoretical and empirical analysis that takes into consideration the changing status of rising powers in the global system and its effect on their intervention behaviour Based on field research and expert interviews it provides a rigorous analysis of China's emergent intervention behaviour in some key African conflicts in Libya South Sudan and Mali and broadens the study of external interventions in civil wars to include the intervention behaviour of non Western rising powers Obert Hodzi is Visiting Researcher at the African Studies Center Boston University USA and Postdoctoral Researcher at the University of Helsinki Finland

China's Virtual Monopoly of Rare Earth Elements Roland Howanietz, 2018-06-12 Rare Earth Elements are a group of 17 metals which have a central role in modern industry increasingly used in the fields of green technologies high technological consumer goods industrial and medical appliances and modern weapons systems Although deposits of Rare Earths are globally dispersed over 90% of global demand has been provided by Chinese mines since the late 1990s leading to a situation where China has a virtual monopoly This book surveys the Rare Earths mining industry discusses the extent to which Rare Earths really are scarce elsewhere in the world and assesses the economics of production considering arguments for the rationing of supply for higher pricing and for a total export embargo This actually occurred in 2010 demonstrating the vulnerability of the rest of the world to China's control of these increasingly vital resources

China's Policies 2014 Sc io, 2014-11-07 NA China and Middle East Conflicts Guy Burton, 2020-07-30 How do aspiring and established rising global powers respond to conflict Using China the book studies its response to wars and rivalries in the Middle East from the Cold War to the present Since the People's Republic was established in 1949 China has long been involved in the Middle East and its conflicts from exploiting or avoiding them to their management containment or resolution Using a conflict and peace studies angle Burton adopts a broad perspective on Chinese engagement by looking at its involvement in the region's conflicts including Israel Palestine Iraq before and after

2003 Sudan and the Darfur crisis the Iranian nuclear deal the Gulf crisis and the wars in Syria Libya and Yemen The book reveals how a rising global and non Western power handles the challenges associated with both violent and nonviolent conflict and the differences between limiting and reducing violence alongside other ways to eliminate the causes of conflict and grievance Contributing to the wider discipline of International Relations and peace and conflict studies this book will be of interest to students and scholars of peace and conflict studies Chinese foreign policy and the politics and international relations of the Middle East Regulatory Support for Off-Grid Renewable Electricity Ngozi Chinwa Ole,Eduardo G. Pereira,Peter Kayode Oniemola,Gustavo Kaercher Loureiro,2023-02-02 This book investigates the role of law in enabling and addressing the barriers to the development of off grid renewable electricity OGRE The limited development of OGRE is ascribed to a host of social economic and legal barriers including the problem of initial capital costs existing subsidies for conventional electricity and lack of technological and institutional capacity Through the analyses of selected case studies from Africa Asia Europe and North and South America this book discusses the typical barriers to the development of OGRE from a global perspective and examines the role of the law in addressing them Drawing together the lessons learnt from the case studies this book offers robust recommendations on how the development of OGRE will support the goal of achieving universal access to low carbon reliable and sustainable electricity globally This volume will be of great interest to students scholars policy makers investors and practitioners in the fields of energy law and policy climate change and renewable energy development Foreign Policy in Post-Apartheid South Africa Adekeye Adebajo,Kudrat Virk,2017-12-18 South Africa is the most industrialized power in Africa It was rated the continent s largest economy in 2016 and is the only African member of the G20 It is also the only strategic partner of the EU in Africa Yet despite being so strategically and economically significant there is little scholarship that focuses on South Africa as a regional hegemon This book provides the first comprehensive assessment of South Africa s post Apartheid foreign policy Over its 23 chapters and with contributions from established Africa Western Asian and American scholars as well as diplomats and analysts the book examines the current pattern of the country s foreign relations in impressive detail The geographic and thematic coverage is extensive including chapters on the domestic imperatives of South Africa s foreign policy peace making defence and security bilateral relations in Southern Central West Eastern and North Africa bilateral relations with the US China Britain France and Japan the country s key external multilateral relations with the UN the BRICS economic grouping the African Caribbean and Pacific Group ACP as well as the EU and the World Trade Organization WTO An essential resource for researchers the book will be relevant to the fields of area studies foreign policy history international relations international law security studies political economy and development studies Deepening the EU-China Partnership Mario Telò,Ding Chun,Zhang Xiaotong,2017-11-14 The China EC EU relationship started in 1975 is a highly institutionalized multidimensional and complex but to some extent controversial international partnership It is also challenged within the current unstable world This book addresses the convergences and the differences ideational political institutional and interests related between China and the EU by a collective interaction between Chinese and European scholars Among other things the book assesses sectoral bilateral dialogue and focuses on the interplay between internal complexity and external policies discusses ideational divergences in international law and rule of law and in many relevant policy fields Furthermore it compares sustainable growth policies explores trade and investment controversies and negotiations human rights dialogue and addresses environment and climate change policies This text will be of key interest to EU studies and politics China studies and more broadly to area Asian studies and international relations global governance Denver Journal of International Law and Policy ,2013 Asian Development Outlook ,2016 On China's Military Rise Ming-Hsien Wong,2015-04-01 Since the 21st century China's rise has become a fact and People's Liberation Army has developed rather quickly Thusso called China's military rise has become the most challenging phenomenon in world politics Regarding to its army building and readiness many studies have shown that the People's Liberation Army in 2020 will form a complete antiaccess area denial capabilities capable enough to turn China into a great military power in Asia Pacific It will have an impact on the Asia Pacific regional stability the cross strait military balance and under United States re balance strategy Under China's military threat Taiwan must be innovative in terms of strategic thinking and concept Journal of Food Law & Policy ,2015 Agricultural Policy and Institutional Reforms in the Philippines Majah-Leah V. Ravago,A. M. Balisacan,2016 Latin American Economic Outlook Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development,2015 This publication is devoted to the evolving relationship between Latin America and China as well as its prospects in the long term China's transformation involves a gradual shift in its development strategy including the rebalancing process from investment to consumption the demographic transition the structural transformation towards high value added goods and services and a going out policy to approach other regions This report lays the ground for discussing future trends in the relationship between China and Latin America given these changing patterns Based on the analysis of potential transmission channels of China's new model to the region which include issues on trade finance and skills the outlook aims to identify strategies and policy responses for Latin America to overcome development challenges Latin America and China can complement each other further and build a mutually beneficial partnership for development Trade Policy Review ,2017 Standard Daily Trade Service ,1918 Public Policy ,1900 Quarterly Bulletin South African Reserve Bank,2015 Naval War College Review ,2015 China's Footprints in Southeast Asia Ma. Serena I. Diokno,Xinhuang Xiao,Alan Hao Yang,2019 The countries that make up Southeast Asia are seeing an incredible resurgence in their economic power Over the past fifty years their combined wealth has reached the same level as the United Kingdom and taken together they are on track to become the fifth largest world economy But that stability and success has drawn the attention of the second largest world economy China The emerging superpower is increasingly involved in Southeast Asia as part of the ongoing global realignment As China deepens its influence across the region the countries of Southeast Asia are negotiating spaces for themselves in order to respond to or even challenge China's power This is the first book to survey China's growing role in Southeast Asia along multiple dimensions It looks closely and skeptically at the multitude of ways that China has built connections in the region including through trade foreign aid and cultural diplomacy It incorporates examples such as the operation of Confucius Institutes in Indonesia or the promotion of the concept of guangxi China's Footprints in Southeast Asia raises the question of whether the Chinese efforts are helpful or disruptive and explores who it is that really stands to benefit from these relationships The answers differ from country to country but as this volume suggests the footprint of hard and soft power always leaves a lasting mark on other countries institutions
