Learning Lenses Chris Quigley, 2014-06      Learning Lenses Chris Quigley, Chris Quigley Education, 2013      A Whole Person Approach to Wellbeing Johanna Lynch, 2020-12-30 This book builds on the person centred medicine movement to promote a shift in the philosophy of care of distress. It discusses the vital importance of whole person health, healing and growth. Developing a new transdisciplinary concept of sense of safety, this book argues that the whole person needs to be understood within their context and relationships and explores the appraisal and coping systems that are part of health. Using clinical vignettes to illustrate her argument, Lynch draws on an understanding of attachment and trauma informed approaches to life story and counsels against an over reliance on symptom based fragmentation of body and mind. Integrating literature from social determinants of health, psychology, psychotherapy, education and the social sciences with new research from the fields of immunology, endocrinology and neurology, this broad ranging book is relevant to all those with an interest in person centred healthcare including academics and practitioners from medicine, nursing, mental health and public health.

Routledge Companion to Theatre-Fiction Graham Wolfe, 2023-11-14 Novelists have long been attracted to theatre. Some have pursued success on the stage but many have sought to combine these worlds, entering theatre through their fiction, setting stages on their novels' pages and casting actors, directors and playwrights as their protagonists. The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction has convened an international community of scholars to explore the remarkable array of novelists from many eras and parts of the world who have created fiction from the stuff of theatre, asking what happens to theatre on the pages of novels and what happens to novels when they collaborate with theatre. From J W Goethe to Louisa May Alcott, Mikhail Bulgakov, Virginia Woolf and Margaret Atwood, some of history's most influential novelists have written theatre fiction and this Companion discusses many of these figures from new angles. But it also spotlights writers who have received less critical attention such as Dorothy Leighton, Agustín de Rojas Villandrando, Ronald Firbank, Syed Mustafa Siraj, Li Yu and Vicente Blasco Ibañez, bringing their work into conversation with a vital field. A valuable resource for students, scholars and admirers of both theatre and novels, The Routledge Companion to Theatre Fiction offers a wealth of new perspectives on topics of increasing critical concern including intermediality, theatricality, antitheatricality, mimesis, diegesis and performativity.      Virginia Woolf and Her Female Contemporaries Julie Vandivere, Megan Hicks, 2016-06-16 Virginia Woolf and Her Female Contemporaries helps us comprehend the ways that women writers and artists contributed to and complicated modernism by contextualizing them alongside Woolf's work.      Reading with Earth Anne Elvey, 2022-08-25 Winner of the 2023 ANZATS Award for the Best Monograph by an Established Scholar, Applying a re-envisioned ecological feminist hermeneutics this book builds on two important responses to twentieth and twenty first century situations of ecological trauma especially the complex contexts of climate change and cross species relations first ecological feminism second ecological hermeneutics in the Earth Bible tradition By way of readings of selected biblical texts this book suggests that an ecological feminist aesthetic bringing present situation and biblical text into conversation through engagement with activism and literature principally poetry is helpful in decolonizing ethics Such an approach is both informed by and speaks back to the new materialism in ecological criticism
