Canada In 2020 Twenty Leading Voices Imagine Canadas Future:

Fearful Symmetry - The Fall and Rise of Canada's Founding Values Brian Lee Crowley, 2013-07-27 In the 1960s Canada began a seismic shift away from the core policies and values upon which the country had been built A nation of makers transformed itself into a nation of takers Crowley argues that the time has come for the pendulum to swing back back to a time when Canadians were less willing to rely on the state for support when people went where the work was rather than waiting for the work to come to them Thought provoking meticulously detailed and ultimately polarizing Fearful Symmetry is required reading for anyone who is interested in where this country began where it s been and where it s going Canada in 2020 Rudyard Griffiths, 2008 Twelve years from now Canada could be a vastly different place from what it is today Will the country still play a role in the United Nations Will its citizens face tough environmental restrictions How will we relate to our southern neighbours Will Canada still be a democracy In Canada in 2020 Twenty Leading Voices Imagine Canada s Future twenty of Canada s leading commentators including David Suzuki Irshad Manji John Ralston Saul Jennifer Welsh Mark Kingwell and Neil Bissondath explore the ways in which this country is likely to change or not over the coming decades Daniel Stoffman imagines Toronto as the Sao Paulo of the north the result of a poorly managed immigration policy Chantal H bert paints a picture of Canada without Quebec Andrew Cohen envisions a country in which Ottawa has become merely a symbol and in which Canada Day has given way to People s Day Jennifer Welsh puts forth a plan to remedy Canada s diminishing international stature Originally published as an editorial series in La Presse and The Toronto Star the essays are collected here some in expanded and revised form to offer an often controversial and always compelling portrait of Canada s future Quill & Quire , 2008 Voices for the Islands Sheila Harrington, 2024-07-09 A fascinating compendium of stories chronicling the creation of local nature conservancies and the people behind them on seventeen islands on the Salish Sea from the 1990s to the present day Voices for the Islands brings together the stories and experiences of those who rose to protect areas at risk within their island communities Narratively linked by author Sheila Harrington s three year sailing journey among the islands to interview more than fifty veteran conservationists the book shares an in depth view of local protests and the history and evolution of local conservancies from their timely emergence through legal battles and successful partnerships It highlights how local provincial and national support was won through the collaborative efforts of dedicated locals resulting in hundreds of new protected areas and parks within one of the most at risk ecological communities in Canada the islands of the Salish Sea Beginning in the 1980s when logging and development threatened the fragile ecosystems and natural habitats and culminating in the creation of more than seventeen local conservancies and the Gulf Island National Park Reserve Voices for the Islands will inspire readers to turn apathy into action and support the cause of conservation and reconciliation in an era of species extinction and climate change Full of colour photos maps and fascinating first hand stories by unsung heroes of conservation many of whom are now elders this book reveals how local people and grassroots movements have the power to transform the future of our precious planet Official Report of the Debates of the House of Commons Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,2008-11 House of Commons Debates, Official Report Canada. Parliament. House of Commons,2008 A Bold Vision Pei Women's Network,Bold Vision Steering Committee,2014-08 One hundred and fifty years ago in Charlottetown Prince Edward Island 23 men met for the Charlottetown Conference that led to Canadian Confederation Visions of Canada began before them and continue since The Prince Edward Island women s organizations that planned the Bold Vision project wanted to celebrate the historic accomplishments of the Charlottetown Conference but acknowledge that in 1864 the voices and experiences of women Aboriginal peoples racialized people people with disabilities and many more groups were excluded from the formal discussions It is our bold vision that a diversity of women s voices is included in the ongoing discussions of nation building that a country as young as Canada must have So in this context we asked what would a vision for Canada look like that includes the voices and experiences of women from across Canada In this anthology 23 women visionaries answer that question in essays interviews poems and artwork 20 ,1996
